Bandit Gets $100, Helps Accomplices Steal Station Safe

Bound Man Works Free, Calls Police

Dale Saling Victim Of Holdup Here At E. 3rd, Broadway

A gunman took more than $100 from a service station attendant at E. 3rd St. and Broadway early today and then aided by at least one accomplice — loaded the station's safe onto a car or truck and hauled it away, police reported.

Dale Saling, the attendant, was left in the back room of the Humble Oil & Refining Co. station with his hands tied, but managed to work himself loose after a short time and telephoned police. The robbery was timed at 4:05 a.m.

Saling told Patrolman Leonard Richard he was seated in the office of the station when he saw a man cross the lot on foot and enter the building. The man produced a pistol and told Saling:

"This is a robbery. Go into the back room and keep your back toward me!"

While Saling was held at gunpoint, one or more accomplices backed a vehicle into the station's grease rack, then dragged the safe out of the office to a spot near the car or truck. Using a jack, the robbers loaded the safe into the vehicle.

The gunman then tied Saling's hands and removed money from his pockets representing the night's receipts. Police said more than $100 was involved.

Saling was left lying on the U.S. Aides Call Allies' New Year Cease-Fire 'Bloodiest War Truce'

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. officials today called the allies' New Year cease-fire "the bloodiest of all" Vietnam war truce attempts after a Viet Cong force of 2,500 men broke the stand-down and smashed into an American outpost, killing 230 infantry and wounding 153.

The guerrillas' 9th Division, augmented by North Vietnamese replacements, lost 348 men in its attack on the base camp in the shadow of Black Virgin Mountain, 62 miles northwest of Saigon and eight miles from the Cambodian border, U.S. officers said.

The Communist thrust, spokesmen said, gave the allies second thoughts about a 48-hour truce that has been accepted in principle for Tet, the Lunar New Year Jan. 30.

While American headquarters tried to assemble an accurate picture of the collapse of the cease-fire from field reports. U.S. warplanes resumed bombing of North Vietnam with the end of the allied 36-hour truce at 6 a.m. Saigon time.

Hanoi, meanwhile, accused the United States of raiding many "populated areas" during the truce. It did not elaborate on what constituted "raids," but said U.S. aircraft had "repeatedly intruded into the airspace" of several provinces.

On the basis of incomplete communiques, the truce-breaking ground fighting, as vicious as that of normal operations, cost the allies at least 56 dead and 231 wounded. This compared with 14 Americans and five South Vietnamese killed and 27 Americans and seven South Vietnamese wounded during the 48-hour 1967 New Year's truce. The 1968 figures involved 168 shooting incidents, 10 fewer than the year before.

Calculations were complicated because the Communists' announced three-day truce ended at a.m., five hours before the allied stand-down.

U.S. officials said the Viet Cong raid on the U.S. 25th Infantry Division camp in the jungles just above the old Michelin rubber plantation town of Dau Tieng near the Cambodian border came one hour and 20 minutes before the Red truce expired.

The Reds reportedly threw 2,500 men from the veteran 271st and 272nd regiments at a defending force of about 500 Americans manning 105mm howitzer batteries. The guerrillas were repulsed several times before contact broke off at 5 a.m.

American jets attacking with bombs and rockets and C47s firing miniguns flew support missions overhead before the Viet Cong pulled out.

The battle scene in Tay Ninh Province long has been considered one of the most dangerous areas in South Vietnam. It is northwest of the Communist "Iron Triangle" stronghold and was the scene a year and a half ago of a massacre of the South Vietnamese army's 7th Regiment.

In Tay Ninh alone, there were at least five other Viet Cong assaults Monday night and early today, accounting for two American dead and 23 wounded.

While the Tay Ninh battle was by far the most spectacular during the truce period, other violations were reported up and down South Vietnam. They ranged from Red infantry assaults to the abduction of a Montagnard official in the central highlands.

In the air war, American jets streaked off in heavy strikes this morning as the monsoon weather over the North was reportedly clearing up temporarily as it did for several days in December.

There were no initial reports from these strikes but headquarters reported its reconnaissance planes over the North spotted intensive supply movements the previous day.

From North Vietnam's central coastland—the panhandle running down toward the 17th parallel—Navy pilots reported the canals, roads and rail lines were heavy with traffic.

At least 200 trucks, 100 barges and 130 rail cars were seen moving south.

South Vietnamese military officials had asserted Monday

Reports Indicate Step If U.S. Halts Bombing Of North

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson says the administration is carefully evaluating reports that North Vietnam might enter into peace discussions if the United States were to unconditionally stop the bombing of that country.

Johnson said at a news conference Monday at the LBJ Ranch that he was familiar with newspaper reports quoting North Vietnamese Foreign Minister Nguyen Duy Trinh to that effect.

Hanoi Radio broadcast a statement Monday saying that North Vietnam "will talk" when the United States has "unconditionally stopped its bombing and all other acts of war" against the North.

"We are evaluating them," Johnson said of the reports.

Johnson spent considerable time at the news conference talking about what he called "a very important story." He referred to his program to curtail the U.S. dollar drain in 1968.

The President, launching into the new year with vigor, focused his attention today on budget work and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

He had until midnight tonight to sign the new Social Security law that would boost both benefits and Social Security taxes.

On the passenger list today of the Washington-LBJ Ranch jet plane shuttle were the names of HEW Secretary John Gardner, Budget Director Charles Schultze and presidential assistant Douglas Cater.

The President touched on both foreign and domestic matters at the news conference.

He asked all Americans—especially tourists, businessmen, labor and Congress—to cooperate in his effort to cut $3 billion in U.S. spending abroad and bring the balance of pay-

3 Arrested Here After Stakeout In 'Shakedown'

Two young men and a 17-year-old youth were taken into custody by police over the weekend on charges they conspired to obtain $200 by false pretenses by promising to return $3,000 in U. S. Savings Bonds and other valuables stolen Dec. 26 from an East End home.

The case was broken after one of the suspects was nabbed in a police stakeout near Kent St., East End, as he took an envelope containing $200 from the shakedown victim and then turned over a paper sack that later proved to contain only blank pieces of cardboard.

POLICE identified the suspects as:

Robert C. Jackson, 21, of 824 Pennsylvania Ave., John R. Veney, 19, of Ruth St. and a 17-year-old Erie St. youth who will be referred to juvenile authorities.

Affidavits signed by Capt. Kenneth H. Mooney and Patrolman William A. Devon allege that the three attempted to obtain $200 from Harry Cahill of 1090 Ohio Ave. with a false promise to return to him the bonds and other "valuable papers" taken in a burglary at Cahill's home.

Jackson, represented by Donald E. Smith, pleaded not guilty to the false pretense charge to Samuel M. Chertoff, waived a preliminary hearing and asked to be bound over to the grand jury. The court then held him for the jury and set bond at $1,000.

Veney, who is represented by Donald D. Shay, appeared in court and posted a $2,000 appearance bond. No date has been set for his hearing.

Moves To Control Dollar Drain

LBJ Curbs Investments Overseas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration's declared war on the widening gap in the balance of payments would press every American into the defense of the dollar—if Congress goes along.

President Johnson pegged higher taxes as the keystone of a New Year's program he described as "firm and decisive." It incorporates the first mandatory controls U.S. in history on American investments abroad and an appeal to Americans to travel only in this hemisphere if possible.

The investment controls were imposed under existing law. Congress will reconsider later this month Johnson's 10 per cent income tax surcharge proposal.

Government officials held out the possibility of further restrictions on travel such as a tax on Americans going overseas or limits on the amount of money they may take with them. Officials said this must be worked out with Congress.

Henry H. Fowler, secretary of the treasury said Americans should realize that travel abroad is damaging to the country.

The entire program is designed to slash the dollar drain by $3 billion. It includes an effort to cut government spending abroad by $500 million this year and an expansion of exports to increase the trade surplus by at least that much.

In outlining the program Monday at a Johnson City, Tex., news conference, the President revealed the dollar drain this year would reach $3.5 billion to $4 billion—highest in seven years.

Johnson also listed higher Vietnam war costs, more U.S. spending on foreign travel, bigger investments abroad and a smaller gain than expected in the trade surplus.

Preliminary reaction to the plan from Congress seemed cheery with Chairman William Proxmire, D-Wis., of the Senate-House Economic Committee, calling it "exactly the kind of decisive and comprehensive action the situation called for."

Fowler said the program offers some pain for Americans and will mean the foregoing of some pleasures.

He and other administration officials have in the past consistently ruled out a tax on departing tourists as one way to close the travel gap which during 1967 reached an estimated $2 billion, a record.

This type of restriction, however, would be up to Congress which likely would think twice about it in an election year.

Controls on investment overseas would supplant a voluntary program and cut the deficit by $1 billion, bringing total investment down from $5 billion in 1967 to $4 billion.

A tightening of voluntary controls on bank lending abroad would save another $500 million.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Undersecretary Nicholas Katzenbach will lead a U.S. mission to Europe to explain the program and seek cooperation. Another mission to Asia will be led by Eugene Rostow, undersecretary for political affairs.

Johnson again urged wage-price restraint by both labor and management and predicted adoption of his 10 per cent surcharge proposal.

"I do not hold to the view that wage and price controls are imminent at all," he said when asked about a weekend comment by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz that without higher taxes the question of wage and price controls must be faced.

These were Johnson's main actions and proposals:

—He imposed a set of strict controls over all private investments abroad.

—The Federal Reserve Board was given standby authority to force U.S. banks to cut overseas lending by $500 million in the next 12 months.

In 1968 Elections

Republicans Eye Senate Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — The odds are heavily against it but there's a possibility Republicans could win control of the Senate in the 1968 elections.

Some party strategists argue this should become a priority GOP goal.

The Republicans need 15 additional seats to gain a Senate majority for the first time since 1954. But most forecasters expect them to capture far fewer than 15 new seats.

The National Committee for an Effective Congress, a liberal-minded, nonpartisan group, considers a GOP gain of six seats to be "a prudent estimate at this time."

But one GOP official contends the Republicans could take control if the party's top figures in contested states would become Senate candidates.

"If the will is there, the power is there," he said. "Whether the vision is there, I don't know."

It would take an historic Republican landslide next November to produce the party turnover that would give the GOP a majority.

Mayor Will Name Vodrey To New Term

Mayor George E. Willshaw, who began his second term Monday, confirmed today that he will reappoint Robert E. Vodrey as safety - service director.

Queried about the chief aide in his administration, the mayor pointed out that the director's term runs at least until the second Monday in January, under the City Code, and that the law makes an appointment mandatory by the first Monday in March. Then he added that he will appoint Vodrey again.

Vodrey was named to the post originally for the 1964-65 administration of former Mayor Merrill D. Hall, Republican.

When Hall resigned as mayor in the fall of 1965, Willshaw moved up to the mayor's office from the Council presidency, retaining Vodrey as the director. Willshaw later was elected to a two-year term. On Jan. 10, 1966, Willshaw appointed Vodrey as director for the 1966-67 biennium.

Willshaw's term which began yesterday continues for four years. The length of the tenure was extended, effective with the present term, under a new state law. All mayors previously served two year terms.

At the time of his original appointment, Vodrey had just concluded his service as treasurer of the former Moore Furniture Co. He resides on Elystan Way.

As the title implies, the director is in direct charge of all the city's safety and service functions. His chief functions are overseeing the fire, police, street and incinerator departments.

WASHINGTON — The mammoth "social benefit" enterprise called Social Security has grown from slender beginnings in 1937 to a level where, in 1968, it expects to pay out $25.2 billion to some 23.8 million Americans.

Nearly one in eight draw monthly benefits. The outlay will rise, and go to more and more people as the years pass.

In late 1967, Congress enacted into law revisions of the 31-year-old system which will provide for the largest total benefit increases to the elderly and others in the system's history.

THE TOTAL will shoot up a record $2.9 billion in 1968, and then rise in 1969 to a point $3.6 billion above where the outgo would have been under the prior law.

The average increase in benefits is in the range of 13 per cent, but a worker around 50 who can expect to contribute many more years of taxes to the system can look ahead to benefit increases up to 21.8 per cent and a worker 25 to 27 may ultimately get benefits 30 per cent higher.

Later articles in this series will discuss in some detail the changes made in basic Social Security protection — benefits covering retirement, survivors, and disability.

The new law also modified Social Security's important Medicare offshot to enlarge and improve hospital insurance protection, and make it easier for those who elect to buy the supplemental (doctor bill) insurance to handle their doctor bills.

These matters also will be more fully treated farther on in the series.

THE SOCIAL Security system has a lot of critics today, as it always has had. The most common are those who argue that it is not a very good insurance program. (Actually it has been from the outset a blend of an insurance plan with citizen tax contributions and a straight assistance program.)

Because Social Security payments lift many Americans above povery levels and we are in an era of "poverty fighting," the system is being attacked

Slight relief may be forthcoming by tonight from the bitter cold of the last few days.

The forecast calls for intermittent light snow and warmer tonight, with a low in the above-zero teens. The cold weather, however, is due to continue Wednesday, with more light snow.

The low at Millport overnight was 10 below zero, Edwin Copeland, U.S. weather observer, reported. The low reading the previous night was 15 below zero, he said.

Guilford Lake, near Lisbon, was frozen Sunday and Monday and youngsters skated far out on its surface, causing some concern among residents along the shore.

Mayor Will Name Vodrey To New Term

Mayor George E. Willshaw, who began his second term Monday, confirmed today that he will reappoint Robert E. Vodrey as safety - service director.

Queried about the chief aide in his administration, the mayor pointed out that the director's term runs at least until the second Monday in January, under the City Code, and that the law makes an appointment mandatory by the first Monday in March. Then he added that he will appoint Vodrey again.

Vodrey was named to the post originally for the 1964-65 administration of former Mayor Merrill D. Hall, Republican.

When Hall resigned as mayor in the fall of 1965, Willshaw moved up to the mayor's office from the Council presidency, retaining Vodrey as the director. Willshaw later was elected to a two-year term. On Jan. 10, 1966, Willshaw appointed Vodrey as director for the 1966-67 biennium.

Willshaw's term which began yesterday continues for four years. The length of the tenure was extended, effective with the present term, under a new state law. All mayors previously served two year terms.

At the time of his original appointment, Vodrey had just concluded his service as treasurer of the former Moore Furniture Co. He resides on Elysian Way.

As the title implies, the director is in direct charge of all the city's safety and service functions. His chief functions are overseeing the fire, police, street and incinerator departments.

Johnson

ments "as closely into balance as possible."

The President, who has been in Texas since the day after Christmas, has signed 21 bills—but the Social Security measure would be the most important legislation of the batch, so far.

It will mean bigger benefit checks beginning in March for 24 million persons. The minimum retirement pay will go from $44 to $55 a month, the maximum from $142 to $160.50. When a retired worker's wife reaches 65, the sum would increase by 50 per cent. But there will be higher withholding taxes — as much as $52.80 in 1968 on those earning $7,800 or more. Employers pay an equal tax.

The new law keeps the tax rate at 4.4 per cent in 1968 but the amount of salary on which the tax is levied goes up from $6,600 to $7,800.

There are some sweeping and controversial changes included in the bill, which provides for a Social Security tax rate of 15.9 per cent by 1987.

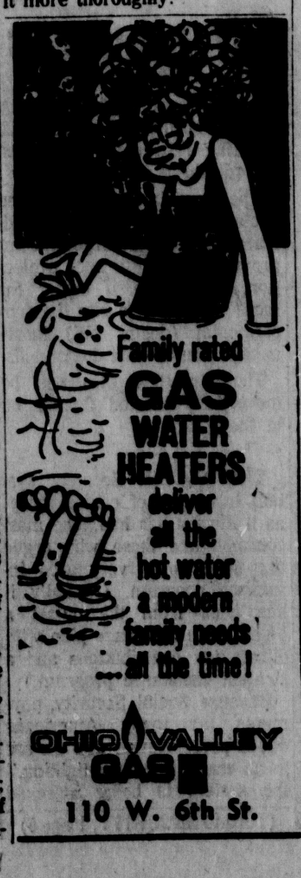

While busy with many domestic problems, the President was studying foreign developments in Vietnam and Cambodia, as well.

He told the news conference he was "very hopeful that we can make advances toward peace" in 1968, adding, "we are pursuing every possible objective."

He said he felt the enemy knows it can no longer win a military victory in Vietnam. But, he added, the North Vietnamese would have to give some evidence of their willingness to seek peace before he could predict such prospects.

The President expressed interest and pleasure over Cambodian Prince Norodom Sihanouk's reported statement that he was ready to talk with a U.S. envoy about the problem of North Vietnamese troops and the Viet Cong using his country as a sanctuary.

"We are quite encouraged," Johnson said, but he advised no further announcement would be made until "we have gone into it more thoroughly."

Shafer Signs 6% Sales Tax Bill

Pennsylvania Legislature Convenes 152nd Session

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General Assembly convened its 152nd regular session at noon today, with an appearance by Gov. Shafer to spell out priorities for the new year.

Shafers annual State of the Commonwealth address was set for 1:30 p.m. before a joint session of the House and Senate.

The governor gave an inkling of the tone of his message at midnight, New Year's Eve, when he signed a 6 per cent sales tax into law.

He said: "I am fully aware that demands for more services will constantly increase, and we cannot continue to raise revenues without setting new and clearer priorities in meeting these demands.

"All over this nation of ours, the problem is the same: demands for services from the people are outstripping our revenue sources to pay for them.

"The time has come for a complete re-evaluation of our fiscal priorities and what we are attempting to accomplish in modern life for all citizens. As governor, I promise all Pennsylvanians that re-evaluation."

Today's session promises to be largely ceremonial, but the lawmakers are scheduled to remain in Harrisburg all week to clear up some left-over items from the 1967 session, which ended only 11 days ago.

Among these are bills on labor, mass transit, implementation of the state's medical care program for the needy, insurance and a code of ethics.

Under a constitutional amendment adopted last May, the General Assembly become a continuing body of a two-year period. Previously, sessions in even-numbered years were limited to fiscal matters.

Next week, the leadership plans to recess until March to accommodate the Constitutional Convention, which must conclude by Feb. 29.

The big question of the year is whether Shafer can make it through the new year without a request for more higher taxes.

Sources close to the administration say that some $500 million in new spending requests already have been submitted to the governor. The requests, if granted, would necessitate another massive tax increase.

Of these requests, $175 million is mandated by prior legislative sessions. Some $130 million is for education, another $30 million for public welfare, and 15 million for miscellaneous programs.

At the same time, the administration anticipates some $200 million in additional revenue during the 1967-68 fiscal year from new consumer taxes—principally the sales tax—and a healthier economy.

This would leave Shafer with only $25 million to spare for new or expanded programs, and could not account for the remaining $300 million in higher requests submitted from the various departments and agencies.

Probably the single most important factor playing against another tax increase is that 1968 is an election year.

Administration and legislative officials, alike, concede that getting new revenue bills through the General Assembly this year will be virtually impossible.

It is believed that commercial car washing began in Portland, Ore., in 1912. The automobile laundry was housed in a 60x40-foot building. Covered with mud and dirt, an automobile was driven in one end of the building and would emerge, 15 minutes later, from the other end with its brass burnished and enamel shining, for a $1.50 charge.

CLEANING TIPS

Why Some Bonded Fabrics Seperate

WHAT IS THE PROBLEM?
Complete separation of a bonded fabric. The garment is made of a wool outer fabric bonded to an acetate tricot lining. (The outer fabric and lining are held together with a bonding agent—like a sandwich. Most bonded fabrics withstand dry cleaning very well.)

WHAT CAUSED IT?
This is a case of poor adhesion. The bonded fabrics seperated due to the agitation necessary in dry cleaning.

HOW CAN IT BE PREVENTED?
The drycleaner cannot prevent this damage if adhesion is poor.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?
The Manufacturer.

REMEDY.
The drycleaner cannot restore bonded fabrics that have separated.

Employers pay an equal tax.

The new law keeps the tax rate at 4.4 per cent in 1968 but the amount of salary on which the tax is levied goes up from $6,600 to $7,800.

There are some sweeping and controversial changes included in the bill, which provides for a Social Security tax rate of 15.9 per cent by 1987.

While busy with many domestic problems, the President was studying foreign developments in Vietnam and Cambodia, as well.

He told the news conference he was "very hopeful that we can make advances toward peace" in 1968, adding, "we are pursuing every possible objective."

He said he felt the enemy knows it can no longer win a military victory in Vietnam. But, he added, the North Vietnamese would have to give some evidence of their willingness to seek peace before he could predict such prospects.

The President expressed interest and pleasure over Cambodian Prince Norodom Sihanouk's reported statement that he was ready to talk with a U.S. envoy about the problem of North Vietnamese troops and the Viet Cong using his country as a sanctuary.

"We are quite encouraged," Johnson said, but he advised no further announcement would be made until "we have gone into it more thoroughly."

CLEANING TIPS

From PRESSWELL

by Paul Seckman

Why Some Bonded Fabrics Seperate

WHAT IS THE PROBLEM?
Complete separation of a bonded fabric. The garment is made of a wool outer fabric bonded to an acetate tricot lining. (The outer fabric and lining are held together with a bonding agent—like a sandwich. Most bonded fabrics withstand dry cleaning very well.)

WHAT CAUSED IT?
This is a case of poor adhesion. The bonded fabrics seperated due to the agitation necessary in dry cleaning.

HOW CAN IT BE PREVENTED?
The drycleaner cannot prevent this damage if adhesion is poor.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?
The Manufacturer.

REMEDY.
The drycleaner cannot restore bonded fabrics that have separated.

Dr. Barnard Performs New Heart Transplant

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Groote Schuur Hospital announced today Dr. Christian N. Barnard had performed another successful heart transplant operation.

A brief bulletin issued at 4 p.m.—9 a.m., EST—said the estimated five-hour transplant to retired Cape Town dentist Philip Blaiberg, was successful.

Blaiberg received the heart of Clive Haupt, 24, who collapsed Monday from a brain hemmorhage.

Haupt was a mulatto—a man of mixed race.

Further details were not immediately available on the operation.

It was the world's third human heart transplant. Barnard performed the first only one month ago on Louis Washkansky, 53, who lived 18 days with his new heart before succumbing to pneumonia.

Doctors had been waiting anxiously since Saturday for a good donor heart to give 58-year-old Dr. Philip Blaiberg a new chance for life. Finding a donor for Blaiberg had posed a difficulty, because of his rare B-positive blood type. But putting the heart of a mulatto into a white man's body apparently posed no problem for Barnard in racially segregated South Africa.

Surgeons began to operate on Blaiberg at about 10:30 a.m. Cape Town time, it was reported. The epochal heart transplant operation on Washkansky Dec. 3 took about five hours and it was expected this operation would take about the same time.

The start of the operation was reported by reliable hospital sources. A senior member of the surgical team told newsmen that both Blaiberg and the donor were in the operating theater.

The donor was reported to be Clive Haupt, 24. His wife of three months, Dorothy, was with him when he collapsed on Fish Hoek Beach Monday. He was understood to have suffered a brain hemorrhage.

Barnard's surgical team spent several hours studying the transplant possibilities Monday night before proceeding.

Blaiberg is married and has a daughter, Jill, 19, believed to be working on a communal farm in Israel.

He was admitted to Groote Schuur Hospital three weeks ago. He suffered his first coronary 14 years ago but his wife, Eileen, said his heart "completely gave out" about nine months ago.

Washkansky's transplanted heart came from a 25-year-old woman injured fatally in an auto accident. It continued to function until Washkansky's death, attributed to pneumonia.

Doctors had said they hoped to take extra precautions against infection after future heart transplants.

Two days before Washkansky's death, Blaiberg said: "I hope to be next. I feel lousy."

After Washkansky died, Barnard had visited Blaiberg and asked whether he still wanted a transplant. "He said he was quite confident it would work one day," Barnard reported.

He was born in Oudtshoorn, South Africa, and his home now is in the Cape Town suburb of Rondeshoshch.

Blaiberg trained at London's Royal Dental College and in 1931-32 was captain of the college rugby team. After finishing his studies he returned to South Africa. War broke out a year later and he went on active duty. He commanded a dental unit in Ethiopia and reached the rank of captain.

The world's second heart transplant operation was done in Brooklyn a few days after the surgery on Washkansky. Dr. Adrian Kantrowitz used the heart of a dead infant to replace that of a dying infant, but the baby lived just 6½ hours.

Two Injured In District Car Mishaps

Teen-aged drivers figured in four district road mishaps Monday and late Sunday — including one in which two East Palestine young people were injured — according to the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

James Tauscher, 17, of 180 E. Lyons Ave., East Palestine, and Jean C. Merwin, 19, of 123 Hiland Ave., East Palestine, were taken to Salem City Hospital after their car hit three guardrails and a concrete bridge on Route 170 early yesterday morning.

Officers said Tauscher, driving a 1967 sedan, was headed north when the car skidded off the west side of the roadway about a third of a mile south of East Palestine at 2:20 a.m. He was charged with speeding.

Roger K. McBee, 16, of RD 1 was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way and driving without a license after a collision on Route 267 yesterday at 11:30 a.m.

The patrol said he was headed east on Center St. and entered Route 267 into the path of a car operated by Walter Curtis Beebee, 27, of 509 Sanford Ave. Beebee attempted to stop, but his car struck the other.

Merle L. Miller, 17, of Glenmoor was headed south on Route 267, a half - mile north of the city limits, at 2 a.m. yesterday when his 1965 sedan went off the highway, over an embankment and hit a fence.

A car driven by Charles A. Jackson, 18, of 18th St. Heights, Wellsville, overturned along Route 170 Sunday night, officers said.

He was headed south when he lost control at a curve, went off the right side and over an embankment, overturning.

Officers File Charge In Mishap At Lisbon

LISBON — Cars driven by Mrs. Ada O. Price, 35, of Lisbon RD 1 and Edward Nold, 51, of 840 N. Market St. collided Monday at 10:05 a. m. on the S. Lincoln Ave. curve west of the Erie - Lackawanna Railroad crossing.

Police charged Mrs. Price with driving left of center. They said she was traveling north on Lincoln (Route 164), failed to make the 90 - degree turn and struck the left side of the Nold car, which was traveling in the opposite direction.

Robert Delqusdri of the Lisbon Hotel, cited Dec. 25 on a left of center charge, forfeited a $25 appearance bond Sunday in mayor's court.

President Of Liberia Plans To Visit Johnson

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
Associated Press Writer

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — President William V. S. Tubman, starting his 25th year as president of this republic founded by freed American slaves, will visit President Johnson in Washington Feb. 27 and 28, U.S. sources said today.

The invitation was extended by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, who represented Johnson at the 72-year-old Liberian leader's inauguration Monday. Tubman, son of a woman born in Atlanta, Ga., said the coming four years in office would be his last term.

A flash of brilliant color from the orange, green and purple ceremonial robes of African guests and evening dresses of many wives brightened the inaugural ball Monday night at Monrovia's old executive mansion.

Surrounded by red, white and blue Liberian flags, Tubman sat with his wife, Antoinette; Humphrey and his wife, Muriel, and President Felix Houphouet Boigny of neighboring Ivory Coast at a table of honor overlooking the dance floor.

Tubman and his wife opened dancing to a marching tune, but sat out most of the modern numbers.

Humphrey danced several times with his wife, who wore an evening gown of lavender lace.

At the inauguration ceremonies earlier, Tubman, wearing his heavy, gold chain of office and a green sash, dropped to his knees on the platform of Centennial Hall and gave thanks for the many blessings he said had been bestowed on his nation.

Traditionally close to the United States since becoming Africa's first independent state in 1847, Liberia now has about $360 million in American investments in its rubber plantations and iron mines. To the corporation executives at the inaugural, Tubman said that he would continue his nation's open door investment policy and encourage free enterprise.

Tubman's sixth straight term was won last May without opposition under his one-party system.

The Liberian stop was the second in a nine-nation African swing for Humphrey. Before leaving for Accra, Ghana, Wednesday the vice president planned to visit American-trained Liberian armed forces units, a junior high school and Liberias national cultural center.

All Parts Of The Process

The 1968 presidential campaign began so long ago no one can remember when it wasn't with us. But now the pace will quicken.

As it quickens, the traditional process of destroying confidence in the party in power will go into high gear. The American people at home and their friends and foes abroad once more will be hard-pressed to find merit in a system that undermines itself to survive.

Foreigners, especially, are baffled. Under their familiar pattern of authoritarian rule, dissent from the dominant party is unknown.

Dissenters must remain underground until they are strong enough to overthrow the government by force. There is no long-drawn-out haranguing against the established government, the way there is in a presidential campaign in the United States.

Twice, German militarists were fooled by this and went to war with the United States because they thought the Wilson and Roosevelt administrations in World War and World War II were undermined by their political opposition.

North Vietnam may be fooled in 1968, when critics of the Johnson administration tee off on its escalation of the war. North Koreans made the mistake in 1952 of thinking an Eisenhower victory would mean an easy way out of the impasse on the Korean peninsula. The fact is, some of the fiercest fighting in the Korean War occurred after the Eisenhower administration took office.

The military issue is one of many that will be affected by the campaign. Partisan attacks will be made on financial and budgetary practices. It will be made to appear that America has been taken over lock, stock and barrel by scalawags and hoodlums; that the nation is being destroyed by the race issue; that the government is rotten at the core.

Partisanship will be rampant. Those who re main objective will be viewed with suspicion. The two-idea system — the two-party system — demands that every citizen be a sheep or a goat.

The fact is the great majority of Americans do not want to be characterized either way. They think of themselves as independent individuals making a free choice between political alternatives — and sometimes they do not relish either alternative.

Before caterwauling, castigating, recriminating and orating get going full-blast in the upcoming 1968 campaign, everybody should bear in mind that it's all part of the process of popular government.

It cannot be soppted, not even curbed. The "loyal opposition" is loyal only to the United States and a political system that has worked well in this republic longer than the entire span of existence of most countries.

The opposition is not loyal to the party in power. It is not supposed to be.

Watch For Wage-Price Guideline

Neither business nor labor is going to like a report published by the Bookings Institute on effectiveness of government wage-price guidelines.

The Institute's study revealed voluntary governmental guidelines did serve as an inflation curb in 1964-66.

The guidelines, established in 1962 by President Kennedy's Council of Economic Advisers, were based on the idea that wage hikes in any year should be limited to average annual increase in industrial productivity in the five preceding years.

Guidelines broke down in 1966 when the Council rejected its own formula that would have boosted the acceptable wage increase from 3.2 to 3.6 per cent. The council preferred to stay with the 3.2 per cent figure. Unions refused to abide by the recommendation.

Now, with all restraints off, unions have negotiated juicy contracts, and prices continue to rise.

The report was not completely complimentary to the proposition of government guides. It concluded they were merely a promising step.

Conclusion of the study did not spell out but seemed to lean toward a position favoring more rigid government controls.

With labor and industry both opposed to government interference, the voluntary angle of guidelines weakens their effectiveness. Likewise, the absence of a strict formula applicable each year erodes confidence in the system.

No guides were issued in 1967, but it would not be a surprise if a set of figures came to light early in 1968. The voluntary aspect of the program will be retained. The government has enough troubles without getting into a scrap over controls.

The administration has the solid support of labor. Several major contracts were negotiated in 1967, and negotiations will be off the pace in 1968. Labor will more likely to adhere to government suggestions than in a period of intensive contract talks.

The administration is committed to push for a tax increase. It would like prices to remain stable.

Although new guidelines may make an appearance, there is no assurance they will slow inflation because they could be ignored by industry in 1968 as blandly as they were ignored by labor in 1966.

Spy Game Crooked By Nature

Harold A. R. Kim Philby, the Soviet spy who worked for years in British intelligence, is back in the news. The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia, printed an article that praised Philby's exploits. This spy lauded the Soviet secret police.

The article recounted how Philby had latched onto western secrets during his years with the British.

Spying is the only business that proudly claims the credibility gap as part of its weaponry. Its arsenal also includes lying, cheating, stealing, double-dealing and triple-crossing.

That is why it is unhealthy to swallow every spy story. It sometimes is advantageous for a country to make it appear certain information has been stolen when it really hasn't been stolen at all.

False information sometimes is fed to known spies to throw a foreign government off the track. Or, correct data is fed to a known spy whose government knows he has been found out and will disregard what he picks up as being false. See?

The clever cover-up, sinister scheming and ordinary mistake are intwined in a tapestry of mystery that baffles ordinary laymen. We suspect the experts are puzzled from time to time, too.

Philby may well be the greatest Soviet spy in history. On the other hand, it would be nice for British intelligence to have a man with all those connections in the Soviet KBG, wouldn't it?

Cotton Corners

Dear Nephew: Let me put it this way in behalf of your Aunt Effie and me — that if this were to be the last Christmas for the pair of us we couldn't have wished for a merrier one than you gave us.

If, as you always say, this is only a payment due on all the merry Christmases we gave you, it's a good deal all around. Thank you again for everything.

The drive home was without incident. We made the entire trip in daylight, as we had planned to do. Your aunt and I were talking about an oddity in our driving experience.

We never have been involved in or close to a serious accident. Neither have we come upon the scene of a serious accident in time to see the broken bodies of the victims.

This would not be unusual if we were stay-at-homes. But we have been getting around in automobiles since the era of the Tin Lizzies. The first car she drove was a windup Ford — and she cranked it herself. My introduction to the Auto Age was a Reo, though I had ridden in several "horseless carriages" belonging to other people.

What do you think accounts for this? Is it because we have been lucky? Or is it because the law of probability makes it a certainty that the great majority of autoists in this country have the same experience?

The fact is that auto accidents are like juvenile delinquency, hippies and the hazards of aviation — exaggerated because they are newsworthy. I was discussing this with the editor of The Record here at the Corners.

He dragged out that bromide about the unusual being news and so on. I have heard the bit about the man biting the dog so often I reach for my hat to get sick in whenever I hear it again. He dragged that out too, but while reaching for my hat I thought of a comeback.

I told him if the news media dredged up every incident of a man's biting a dog and blow it up out of all proportion the careless thinkers of this Great Republic soon would be muttering to one another that something should be done about all these men biting dogs.

Next thing, men would be calling up the TV news rooms and newspapers and announcing they would bite a dog in front of the City Hall at 3 p.m. Thanks to intensive news coverage, the United States soon would be internationally infamous as the country where people were so hungry they were eating dogs.

We would have societies dedicated to stopping men from biting dogs. The Office of Economic Opportunity would appropriate a billion dollars to teach men not to bite dogs. We would have White House study commissions working on the problem.

Men biting dogs would be listed as one of the grave challenges of our era, but in actual fact the whole thing would be malarkey. People would be wringing their hands over something so rare most of them had heard of it only on TV and by hearsay.

Yet, because of distorted publicity, they would have been made to believe dog-biting by men was as commonplace as baby beating, which people don't worry about because it isn't unusual.

With this thought, we will leave you. Happy New Year.

Meany Resignation Hinted

WASHINGTON, — Deep in the inner circle, whenever they "dialogue" over the big labor story of 1968, someone predicts flatly that George Meany — Mr. Labor — will resign from the AFL-CIO presidency in less than a year.

Victor Riesel

That would rock Washington. It would echo through far-off lands as distant as East Africa and Southeast Asia. For Mr. Meany is a powerful global force. He has, in fact, just launched a vital project in Africa.

Regardless of the repercussions, some sophisticates do believe he will retire in Nov. '68 just after the presidential campaign.

Now rugged and stalwart, the pain in his hips and legs gone,the 73-year-old leader of the free world's biggest labor movement wants to see Lyndon B. Johnson through to victory of course.

Then, facing his 75th birthday, Meany will step from the AFL-CIO presidency he has held and has been the only one to hold — since 1955.

He will not want for money, prestige or power. At the moment he can retire at $42,000 annually. His people respect him. Though publicly he's a professional growler, privately he's a shy and warm man.

He's got guts, too. I'll swear to it that in West Berlin some years back, in the shadow of the Communist wall, he put his husky frame between some of us and the barbed wire to protect us from pot shots.

THOUGH HIS VOICE is as gruff as his hand is rough, Meany's friends, always will be at his side. As for power, if President Johnson is reelected, there is no doubt that Meany always will be able to use the White House doors, front, rear and side.

But why all this talk of Meany's retirement so soon after he ran one of the tightest labor conventions in union history and proved to Walter Reuther and the world that he could rightly say, "the AFL-CIO c'est moi."

This talk has been provoked by an unreported letter mailed on December 14, the day after the convention's final Executive Council session in Bal Harbour.

This three-page communication was sent by AFL-CIO Vice President James Suffridge, an "anonymous" but powerful labor leader who has been president of the Retail Clerks International Assn. (RCIA) for 24 years.

This letter, written specially for all the RCIA leadership echelons, was dispatched not only to Suffridge's fellow officers but to virtually all national union presidents.

In the communication, Suffridge, who was the youngest national union president when he took office in '44, says he will not stand for reelection as RCIA international union president. The nominations are made over a two-month period — January and February. His term expires next September.

But Suffridge discloses in this letter that he has a lifetime pact with the RCIA, an agreement which must have been written by the contract specialist for the Chase Manhattan Bank.

The RCIA has agreed to make him International President Emeritus for life. He will leave a headquarters, a staff, and be chairman of the International Executive Board for four years. He will be a delegate to all conventions.

"(Suffridge shall) be entitled to maintain any position or office which he may hold with other labor bodies and be privileged to serve in any other position of responsibility or honor within or outside the labor movement . . ." says the agreement.

"(Suffridge is) authorized and requested to continue to cultivate, maintain and develop relations with executives, officers and other key industry representatives as well as with the legislative and executive branches of the U.S. Government and other prominent governmental and political figures."

THIS MEANS THAT James Suffridge, a nominal Republican, a conservative liberal or liberal conservative, non-controversial, almost without enemies in a movement laden with feuds, next September will have the time, financial security and a permanent base from which to operate in an arena broader than the RCIA.

He will retire at $50,000 annually and with as much of a staff as he needs.

He is also one of George Meany's two or three most intimate friends. At least once a year, they idle together, or golf, or simply go into retreat for a few weeks — just the two of them.

At the recent convention, Suffridge was the only AFL-CIO vice president to whom Meany surrendered the gavel. This came during the Monday, Dec. 11, morning session. Traditionally, Meany only gives up the chair when he is being placed in nomination for reelection as president.

So the conjecture is that Meany will resign next November or December during an AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting. By that time he expects that Reuther and his United Auto Workers will be out of the labor federation. So there is no chance that the Detroit redhead can succeed him.

Then, according to the insiders, Meany, facing his 75th birthday, will support Suffridge, 59, for the interim presidency until a permanent chief executive is elected at the 1969 national convention in Kansas City.

There is no indication now that Suffridge, having achieved the presidency, would want to hold on to it. He has long said he truly wants "out."

Then when the national AFL-CIO convention meets in September 1969, the race will be wide open.

With labor the financial, political and industrial force it has become, the winner automatically will become one of the world's most influential leaders.

And that's how the insiders are talking at the turn of the new year.

Rosenthal Gets Things Done

WASHINGTON

Can a little-known congressman with little seniority have an impact on the vast federal governmental structure?

Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, a 44-year-old Democrat rounding out his sixth year as representative of a Queens, N.Y., district, thinks so.

"One congressman with a fair amount of chutzpah can awaken the public conscience," says Rosenthal, using the Yiddish word for nerve.

A lawyer who maintains the average citizen is frequently overlooked in the governmental process, Rosenthal has in the past few months launched campaigns for greater aviation safety, improved medical care, including a shift away from the federal emphasis on medical research, and greater representation for the consumer's viewpoint.

A series of hearings by a special House subcommittee he heads spotlighted higher prices and inferior merchandise in the poverty area outlets of supermarket chains. And Rosenthal is now investigating the sale to the public of millions of dollars of items manufactured for the government and rejected as inadequate.

ROSENTHAL is a firm believer that "government responds to the public's awareness" but that it is first necessary to stir that awareness. He is a refreshing difference from the ordinary junior congressman who tends to his committee work and waits for seniority.

His recent news conference on the nation's health needs is an example of how he operates. He sought to get one major point across—that health care in the United States is not what it should be. "We're not No. 1 or even No. 2," he said.

The New York Democrat then displayed statistics showing the United States ranks 21st in the life expectancy of infants, and 18th in infant mortality. Others showed the number of family doctors in the United States has dropped 94 to 50 per 100,000 people in the past 35 years while reliance on foreign doctors in this country is increasing.

Rosenthal insists "these matters will not await the end of a war, the beginning of a Congress, the results of an election or any other irrelevant event. They demand presidential and congressional action now."

His news conference, held shortly after Congress adjourned this year, was similar to one three months ago during the congressional Labor Day recess at which he publicized his concern with air safety over the nation's cities by citing evidence of more than 80 near-collisions over New York City in the past three years.

HE SAID the Federal Aviation Administration has already adopted one of his proposals, to give pilots immunity to testify about near misses, and is considering two others — thinning out air space over congested areas and increasing the proficiency of pilots, including those of private planes.

Rosenthal said he expects the entire question of health to be aired next year in hearings by the intergovernmental relations subcommittee on which he serves.

Rosenthal's most publicized effort has been in the supermarket field, a subject of hearings in New York, St. Louis and Washington.

He said that, as a result, a supermarket trade group has sent letters to all of its members warning them against raising prices and providing inferior merchandise in poor neighborhoods.

"If you walk into any supermarket in the poverty areas of those three cities," he said, "it looks a lot better than it looked six months ago."

He's got guts, too. I'll swear to it that in West Berlin some years back, in the shadow of the Communist wall, he put his husky frame between some of us and the barbed wire to protect us from pot shots.

THOUGH HIS VOICE is as gruff as his hand is rough, Meany's friends, always will be at his side. As for power, if President Johnson is reelected, there is no doubt that Meany always will be able to use the White House doors, front, rear and side.

But why all this talk of Meany's retirement so soon after he ran one of the tightest labor conventions in union history and proved to Walter Reuther and the world that he could rightly say, "the AFL-CIO c'est moi."

This talk has been provoked by an unreported letter mailed on December 14, the day after the convention's final Executive Council session in Bal Harbour.

This three-page communication was sent by AFL-CIO Vice President James Suffridge, an "anonymous" but powerful labor leader who has been president of the Retail Clerks International Assn. (RCIA) for 24 years.

This letter, written specially for all the RCIA leadership echelons, was dispatched not only to Suffridge's fellow officers but to virtually all national union presidents.

In the communication, Suffridge, who was the youngest national union president when he took office in '44, says he will not stand for reelection as RCIA international union president. The nominations are made over a two-month period — January and February. His term expires next September.

But Suffridge discloses in this letter that he has a lifetime pact with the RCIA, an agreement which must have been written by the contract specialist for the Chase Manhattan Bank.

The RCIA has agreed to make him International President Emeritus for life. He will leave a headquarters, a staff, and be chairman of the International Executive Board for four years. He will be a delegate to all conventions.

"(Suffridge shall) be entitled to maintain any position or office which he may hold with other labor bodies and be privileged to serve in any other position of responsibility or honor within or outside the labor movement . . ." says the agreement.

"(Suffridge is) authorized and requested to continue to cultivate, maintain and develop relations with executives, officers and other key industry representatives as well as with the legislative and executive branches of the U.S. Government and other prominent governmental and political figures."

THIS MEANS THAT James Suffridge, a nominal Republican, a conservative liberal or liberal conservative, non-controversial, almost without enemies in a movement laden with feuds, next September will have the time, financial security and a permanent base from which to operate in an arena broader than the RCIA.

He will retire at $50,000 annually and with as much of a staff as he needs.

He is also one of George Meany's two or three most intimate friends. At least once a year, they idle together, or golf, or simply go into retreat for a few weeks — just the two of them.

At the recent convention, Suffridge was the only AFL-CIO vice president to whom Meany surrendered the gavel. This came during the Monday, Dec. 11, morning session. Traditionally, Meany only gives up the chair when he is being placed in nomination for reelection as president.

So the conjecture is that Meany will resign next November or December during an AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting. By that time he expects that Reuther and his United Auto Workers will be out of the labor federation. So there is no chance that the Detroit redhead can succeed him.

Then, according to the insiders, Meany, facing his 75th birthday, will support Suffridge, 59, for the interim presidency until a permanent chief executive is elected at the 1969 national convention in Kansas City.

There is no indication now that Suffridge, having achieved the presidency, would want to hold on to it. He has long said he truly wants "out."

Then when the national AFL-CIO convention meets in September 1969, the race will be wide open.

With labor the financial, political and industrial force it has become, the winner automatically will become one of the world's most influential leaders.

And that's how the insiders are talking at the turn of the new year.

Rosenthal Gets Things Done

WASHINGTON

Can a little-known congressman with little seniority have an impact on the vast federal governmental structure?

Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, a 44-year-old Democrat rounding out his sixth year as representative of a Queens, N.Y., district, thinks so.

"One congressman with a fair amount of chutzpah can awaken the public conscience," says Rosenthal, using the Yiddish word for nerve.

A lawyer who maintains the average citizen is frequently overlooked in the governmental process, Rosenthal has in the past few months launched campaigns for greater aviation safety, improved medical care, including a shift away from the federal emphasis on medical research, and greater representation for the consumer's viewpoint.

A series of hearings by a special House subcommittee he heads spotlighted higher prices and inferior merchandise in the poverty area outlets of supermarket chains. And Rosenthal is now investigating the sale to the public of millions of dollars of items manufactured for the government and rejected as inadequate.

ROSENTHAL is a firm believer that "government responds to the public's awareness" but that it is first necessary to stir that awareness. He is a refreshing difference from the ordinary junior congressman who tends to his committee work and waits for seniority.

His recent news conference on the nation's health needs is an example of how he operates. He sought to get one major point across—that health care in the United States is not what it should be. "We're not No. 1 or even No. 2," he said.

The New York Democrat then displayed statistics showing the United States ranks 21st in the life expectancy of infants, and 18th in infant mortality. Others showed the number of family doctors in the United States has dropped 94 to 50 per 100,000 people in the past 35 years while reliance on foreign doctors in this country is increasing.

Rosenthal insists "these matters will not await the end of a war, the beginning of a Congress, the results of an election or any other irrelevant event. They demand presidential and congressional action now."

His news conference, held shortly after Congress adjourned this year, was similar to one three months ago during the congressional Labor Day recess at which he publicized his concern with air safety over the nation's cities by citing evidence of more than 80 near-collisions over New York City in the past three years.

HE SAID the Federal Aviation Administration has already adopted one of his proposals, to give pilots immunity to testify about near misses, and is considering two others — thinning out air space over congested areas and increasing the proficiency of pilots, including those of private planes.

Rosenthal said he expects the entire question of health to be aired next year in hearings by the intergovernmental relations subcommittee on which he serves.

Rosenthal's most publicized effort has been in the supermarket field, a subject of hearings in New York, St. Louis and Washington.

He said that, as a result, a supermarket trade group has sent letters to all of its members warning them against raising prices and providing inferior merchandise in poor neighborhoods.

"If you walk into any supermarket in the poverty areas of those three cities," he said, "it looks a lot better than it looked six months ago."

Weirton Men Will Bid For Sheriff's Post

Two Weirton residents today announced their candidacies for sheriff of Hancock County to succeed Joseph Rodak, who will not be eligible to run again in the May primary.

They are Mickey M. Mallas of 2910 Weir Ave., a member of the Democratic Executive Committee since 1964, and Frank A. Rocchio of 278 School St., also a Democrat.

Mallas, 41, said his objectives would be protection of youth from the "dangerous and unabated rise of juvenile delinquency and teen-age vice in the county."

He said he would hire a full-time matron for the care of girls and women involved in law violations, and inaugurate "An efficient patrolling system for maximum safety for county residents. "He said he would make himself available to all residents on a 24-hour basis by moving to a centrally located home. He promised to work on a smaller budget than the present administration "to help reduce taxes."

Mallas was born and reared in Hancock County and is a member of the American Legion. He is a veteran of the Air Force, is married and the father of two children.

Currently, in addition to his post on the executive committee, he is president of the New Frontier Democratic League of Hancock and is a craneman at the Weirton Steel Co.

Rocchio, a lifelong resident of Weirton, was graduated from Weir High School in 1949. He has been employed for the last nine years in the Strip Steel office at the Weirton Steel Co.

He also owns and operates the Tri-State Detective Agency and is a licensed private investigator in the state of West Virginia.

A veteran of the Korean Conflict, Rocchio served four years with the Air Force. He earned the Korean Service Medal with two Bronze Service Stars and other citations.

He is married to the former Judy DeSantis of Steubenville. They have three children.

Rocchio is a member of the VFW, Moose Lodge, Knights of Columbus, St. Paul's Church, West Virginia Association of Investigators and the U.S. Federation of Police.

He currently is engaged in a course of study with the federation in criminal investigation.

The term is four years. West Virginia law does not permit a sheriff to succeed himself after one term.

Dollar Up Strongly In London And Paris

The Corlorado River is sometimes called the "Nile of America."

Security

nowadays on a new count—not doing enough to combat poverty.

Government specialists estimate, nevertheless, that the 1967 Social Security benefit increases may take another million people above the poverty level. Had the U.S. Senate's more liberal provisions gained the day, the figure might have been two million.

Even without the changes, it is figured that Social Security keeps more than 5.6 million aged poor folk out of real poverty.

OF THE nearly one in every eight Americans who draw monthly Social Security benefits, just short of 17 million are 65 and over. About half of these people have no other regular income, and for most by far, their benefits are their major income source.

But since younger retirees, survivors and disabled persons represented 7 million of the total of beneficiaries, and many children are included, the program has "youth aspects" often overlooked but deserving fuller examination in later articles.

As recently as 1950, only about a fourth of the Americans 65 and over were protected under Social Security. Today 85 per cent are so covered, and other federal programs bring the percentage to 90. Coverage, obviously is not far short of universal.

Of course none of this is the gift of providence. It has to be paid for — by you, the Social Security taxpayer; by your employer in matching payments. Higher benefits are going to cost more, so taxes are going to rise. And that is another story still to be told here.

Drug Addicts Riot And Burn

NORCO, Calif. (AP) — Some 1,800 drug addicts at the California Rehabilitation Center burned buildings and rioted for more than five hours this morning. Two were reported shot after 175 law enforcement officers moved in.

Officials at the neighboring Corona Fire Department reported four or five buildings burned, including the center's firehouse, landscape gardening center and canteen. By 5 a.m. the fires were subsiding, but still burning.

A.R. Todd, business manager at the center, said he did not know what provoked the riot.

Fire officials said the inmates threw rocks, bottles and other objects at them as they tried to battle the flames, and in several instances set fire to trucks as they entered the grounds.

The addicts are committed to the center by civil court order for a minimum six-month internment. The center is open and has no cells.

Capt. Ralph Woodworth of the Riverside County sheriff's office called the outbreak a "state of emergency" and a riotous situation."

4 File As Candidates For W. Va. Governor

Doctors reported that mother and children are doing well and the crisis period is over.

The weights: Annabel 3 pounds 14 ounces, Richard, Faith and Geoffrey each 3 pounds 10 ounces, and Caroline-3-pounds 5½ ounces.

his property. The caller told Cahill his property would be returned if he would pay $300. Cahill said he did not have that much money and compromised with an offer of $200.

The anonymous caller told him there would be another call Friday advising him where and when the money would be paid. Cahill then approached police and told the story and arrangements were made to trap the suspects.

Police said when the second call was made all three suspects were observed around the telephone.

The caller told Cahill to meet the contact man "near the Caplan junk yard, just off Kent St." He was told to go to the spot alone and that he would meet a man wearing leather gloves. The man was to ask Cahill: "Are you looking for me?" and Cahill was to reply: "Yes, if you have my bonds."

MEANWHILE, officers borrowed a pickup truck from a business house and arranged for a stakeout near the spot. Mooney, Devon and Patrolman Charles A. Winters were waiting in the truck to observe the transaction. They set up the stakeout about a half-hour prior to Cahill's "appointment," which was at 2 p. m. Friday.

Cahill drove up in his car and alighted. A young man later identified as the juvenile walked up to him and they exchanged the prearranged code words.

Police said the suspect reached into a coat pocket and pulled out a paper sack which he said contained the bonds. He took the money proferred by Cahill and began to run. The officers leaped out of the truck and captured him.

Later examination showed that the sack contained only strips of cardboard, officers said.

Cahill's home was entered between 4 and 9:13 p.m. last Tuesday. In addition to the bonds, the loot included $210 in coins, insurance paper, car titles and many other items, police said.

The charges against Jackson and Veney allege that they "did falsely pretend, with intent to defraud Harry Cahill, that they would return U. S. Savings Bonds and other valuable papers belonging to Cahill if he would pay them $200, whereas in truth and in fact they did not return the personal property nor did they intend to return it."

Officials Issue Joint Reminder On Garbage Cans

Health Commissioner Jack Bonner and Incinerator Supt. John Melvin joined today in issuing a warning to householders that they must utilize garbage cans that are in good condition and of the type prescribed by the City Code.

The code requires that 20 - Gallon galvanized containers must be utilized for garbage. The cans must be "water-tight, with handles and tight - fitting lids," the code provides.

Bonner said many householders do not use proper containers. He added that others put out trash for collection many days ahead of the scheduled pickup in the neighborhood and the refuse then is scattered on the streets and sidewalks.

Melvin pointed out that if a huge container is used, it sometimes contains a load that is too heavy for the incinerator employes to lift safely. In addition, if the lid is missing or does not fit properly, the contents can become soaked with moisture, he added. Cans with holes in the bottom allow unsanitary liquid and other material to spill onto the workers, he said.

St. Clair's Trustees Set Reorganization

St. Clair Township trustees will reorganize tonight at 7:30, Robert Simms, chairmen, has announced.

A new chairman will be elected and a temporary budget adopted.

Simms reminded residents of Wyoming Ave., Martha St., Moore St. and Milton Ave. that tonight is the last opportunity to make payments for the 1967 blacktop program.

—Government agencies were ordered to reduce 1968 spending by $500 million.

—American firms were urged to expand and intensify their foreign sales programs. The Commerce department will launch a $200 million sales-promotion program.

—Legislation to force U.S. firms to bring home their accumulated overseas earnings will be considered.

—Common Market countries were asked to eliminate nontariff barriers to U.S. imports.

—All Americans were asked not to travel outside the country for the next two years. The President said legislation to restrict travel will be submitted to Congress. More foreign tourists will be sought to visit the United States.

In an executive order, Johnson clamped these specific controls on overseas investments: No new investments will be permitted this year in Western Europe or South Africa. Investments in Britain and non-European developed nations—such as Australia and Canada—will be held to 65 per cent of the 1965-66 average.

Weirton Men Will Bid For Sheriff's Post

Two Weirton residents today announced their candidacies for sheriff of Hancock County to succeed Joseph Rodak, who will not be eligible to run again in the May primary.

They are Mickey M. Mallas of 2910 Weir Ave., a member of the Democratic Executive Committee since 1964, and Frank A. Rocchio of 278 School St., also a Democrat.

Mallas, 41, said his objectives would be protection of youth from the "dangerous and unabated rise of juvenile delinquency and teen-age vice in the county."

He said he would hire a full-time matron for the care of girls and women involved in law violations, and inaugurate "An efficient patrolling system for maximum safety for county residents. "He said he would make himself available to all residents on a 24-hour basis by moving to a centrally located home. He promised to work on a smaller budget than the present administration "to help reduce taxes."

Mallas was born and reared in Hancock County and is a member of the American Legion. He is a veteran of the Air Force, is married and the father of two children.

Currently, in addition to his post on the executive committee, he is president of the New Frontier Democratic League of Hancock and is a craneman at the Weirton Steel Co.

Rocchio, a lifelong resident of Weirton, was graduated from Weir High School in 1949. He has been employed for the last nine years in the Strip Steel office at the Weirton Steel Co.

He also owns and operates the Tri-State Detective Agency and is a licensed private investigator in the state of West Virginia.

A veteran of the Korean Conflict, Rocchio served four years with the Air Force. He earned the Korean Service Medal with two Bronze Service Stars and other citations.

He is married to the former Judy DeSantis of Steubenville. They have three children.

Rocchio is a member of the VFW, Moose Lodge, Knights of Columbus, St. Paul's Church, West Virginia Association of Investigators and the U.S. Federation of Police.

He currently is engaged in a course of study with the federation in criminal investigation.

The term is four years. West Virginia law does not permit a sheriff to succeed himself after one term.

floor in the back room of the station with his hands tied behind his back.

He worked his way to his feet and went outside. He saw two cars traveling north on Broadway and shouted at them, but neither driver stopped.

Saling said he then worked his hands free, returned to the station and telephoned police. The call was received at headquarters about 4:29.

Officers said the missing safe is about 30 inches high and finished in a blue - gray color. It was locked.

An inventory was under way to determine if anything else was missing, officers said.

Dollar Up Strongly In London And Paris

LONDON (AP) — The dollar moved up strongly in both London and Paris today in the wake of President Johnson's bid to get U.S. foreign accounts out of the red.

The Corlorado River is sometimes called the "Nile of America."

Security

nowadays on a new count—not doing enough to combat poverty.

Government specialists estimate, nevertheless, that the 1967 Social Security benefit increases may take another million people above the poverty level. Had the U.S. Senate's more liberal provisions gained the day, the figure might have been two million.

Even without the changes, it is figured that Social Security keeps more than 5.6 million aged poor folk out of real poverty.

OF THE nearly one in every eight Americans who draw monthly Social Security benefits, just short of 17 million are 65 and over. About half of these people have no other regular income, and for most by far, their benefits are their major income source.

But since younger retirees, survivors and disabled persons represented 7 million of the total of beneficiaries, and many children are included, the program has "youth aspects" often overlooked but deserving fuller examination in later articles.

As recently as 1950, only about a fourth of the Americans 65 and over were protected under Social Security. Today 85 per cent are so covered, and other federal programs bring the percentage to 90. Coverage, obviously is not far short of universal.

Of course none of this is the gift of providence. It has to be paid for — by you, the Social Security taxpayer; by your employer in matching payments. Higher benefits are going to cost more, so taxes are going to rise. And that is another story still to be told here.

Drug Addicts Riot And Burn

NORCO, Calif. (AP) — Some 1,800 drug addicts at the California Rehabilitation Center burned buildings and rioted for more than five hours this morning. Two were reported shot after 175 law enforcement officers moved in.

Officials at the neighboring Corona Fire Department reported four or five buildings burned, including the center's firehouse, landscape gardening center and canteen. By 5 a.m. the fires were subsiding, but still burning.

A.R. Todd, business manager at the center, said he did not know what provoked the riot.

Fire officials said the inmates threw rocks, bottles and other objects at them as they tried to battle the flames, and in several instances set fire to trucks as they entered the grounds.

The addicts are committed to the center by civil court order for a minimum six-month internment. The center is open and has no cells.

Capt. Ralph Woodworth of the Riverside County sheriff's office called the outbreak a "state of emergency" and a riotous situation."

4 File As Candidates For W. Va. Governor

CHARLESTON (AP) — Four men paid the $250 fee and filed as candidates for West Virginia governor in the first hour after the Secretary of State's office opened today, first day of the filing period for entering the May 14 primary election.

State Attorney General O. Donald Robertson on the Democratic ticket and ex-Gov. Cecil H. Underwood, Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., and Peter D. Beter on the Republican ticket became the first official gubernatorial candidates.

Proud Mother Sees Quints Second Time

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — The proud mother of Australia's first quints, 34-year-old Mary Braham, saw them today for the second time since they were born Sunday morning.

Mrs. Braham walked from her third-floor ward to take the elevator to the nursery on the fourth floor of Brisbane Women's Hospital to see the babies.

Doctors reported that mother and children are doing well and the crisis period is over.

The quints were weighed today for the first time and they will be weighed every four days.

The weights: Annabel 3 pounds 14 ounces, Richard, Faith and Geoffrey each 3 pounds 10 ounces, and Caroline-3-pounds 5½ ounces.

his property. The caller told Cahill his property would be returned if he would pay $300. Cahill said he did not have that much money and compromised with an offer of $200.

The anonymous caller told him there would be another call Friday advising him where and when the money would be paid. Cahill then approached police and told the story and arrangements were made to trap the suspects.

Police said when the second call was made all three suspects were observed around the telephone.

The caller told Cahill to meet the contact man "near the Caplan junk yard, just off Kent St." He was told to go to the spot alone and that he would meet a man wearing leather gloves. The man was to ask Cahill: "Are you looking for me?" and Cahill was to reply: "Yes, if you have my bonds."

MEANWHILE, officers borrowed a pickup truck from a business house and arranged for a stakeout near the spot. Mooney, Devon and Patrolman Charles A. Winters were waiting in the truck to observe the transaction. They set up the stakeout about a half-hour prior to Cahill's "appointment," which was at 2 p. m. Friday.

Cahill drove up in his car and alighted. A young man later identified as the juvenile walked up to him and they exchanged the prearranged code words.

Police said the suspect reached into a coat pocket and pulled out a paper sack which he said contained the bonds. He took the money proferred by Cahill and began to run. The officers leaped out of the truck and captured him.

Later examination showed that the sack contained only strips of cardboard, officers said.

Cahill's home was entered between 4 and 9:13 p.m. last Tuesday. In addition to the bonds, the loot included $210 in coins, insurance paper, car titles and many other items, police said.

The charges against Jackson and Veney allege that they "did falsely pretend, with intent to defraud Harry Cahill, that they would return U. S. Savings Bonds and other valuable papers belonging to Cahill if he would pay them $200, whereas in truth and in fact they did not return the personal property nor did they intend to return it."

Officials Issue Joint Reminder On Garbage Cans

Health Commissioner Jack Bonner and Incinerator Supt. John Melvin joined today in issuing a warning to householders that they must utilize garbage cans that are in good condition and of the type prescribed by the City Code.

The code requires that 20 - Gallon galvanized containers must be utilized for garbage. The cans must be "water-tight, with handles and tight - fitting lids," the code provides.

Bonner said many householders do not use proper containers. He added that others put out trash for collection many days ahead of the scheduled pickup in the neighborhood and the refuse then is scattered on the streets and sidewalks.

Melvin pointed out that if a huge container is used, it sometimes contains a load that is too heavy for the incinerator employes to lift safely. In addition, if the lid is missing or does not fit properly, the contents can become soaked with moisture, he added. Cans with holes in the bottom allow unsanitary liquid and other material to spill onto the workers, he said.

NAACP Victory Seen In Ohio Jobs Guarantee

By AUSTIN SCOTT
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — An agreement reached in Columbus, Ohio, guaranteeing 140 jobs for Negroes on Ohio State University construction projects looks like a clear-cut victory for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

But to the NAACP staff members who negotiated it, the pact symbolizes the end of once-bright hopes that federal and state governments would vigorously enforce anti-discrimination statutes, and shows that pressure must be applied unrelentingly against unions and builders.

"It's an indication of the failure of voluntary compliance," said Herbert Hill, national labor director for the NAACP.

"There is a federal executive order issued by President Johnall federally financed construction. The U.S. Division of Contract Compliance is a dead letter. They have never enforced this. They depend instead on voluntary compliance."

In Washington, the head of the division, Owen Kiley, replied that federal funds for the Ohio State projects had been held up since last May.

That was when U.S. District Judge Joseph P. Kenneary ruled in a suit brought by the NAACP that government funds may not be used on projects where there is racial discrimination in hiring.

The judge also held that the state had primary responsibility for requiring that such work forces be integrated, and it was under his order that agreement was reached last Thursday, more than six months later.

Until last month, according to Dr. David McConnell, a university biochemist who headed the NAACP negotiating team as labor chairman of the Columbus branch, the university had made no attempt to implement the decision.

McConnell, who is white, said negotiations were arranged only after he gained admittance to a Washington meeting of Health Education and Welfare Department officials last Dec. 1 by threatening "to hold a press conference in the hall if they didn't admit me."

At that meeting, he said, "We got some of the primitive facts established. Namely, we held HEW as well as the state of Ohio responsible. Then HEW told the University they wouldn't let $6 million in matching funds go unless they settled their peace with the NAACP.

"It was really a squeese play between the federal government and the NAACP, and the federal government ran scared because it's an election year. We threatened to name them in a suit before the same court on the same of Ohio."

Director Kiley of the HEW's Division of Contract Compliance confirmed the meeting with McConnell, but said that when the NAACP representative asked to be admitted, he was invited to attend and fully express his views. And, said Kiley, the decision to withhold federal funds for the Ohio State projects was made last May, not at the December meeting.

In Columbus, the university's equal employment opportunity officer, Stephen Lance, disputed McConnell's allegation that the school hadn't tried to implement the court order.

"I would object to the words 'no attempt' and would say that the attempts being made finally jelled after that (Washington) meeting," Lance said. He said university officials began negotiating with contractors immediately after the court decision "to get their commitments to hire minority workers."

To Hill the Ohio State agreement means more pressure, not less, on government-financed construction projects. He named Newark, N.J., and San Francisco-Oakland as the next two major targets. Both areas, he said, plan huge construction programs and have "volatile Negro ghetto areas with very high rates of Negro unemployment."

"We have exhausted all reasonable efforts to discuss these matters with the building trades unions," said Hill. "Therefore there is no choice but to move to cut off public funds. . .

Despite his criticism of government actions, Hill sounds confident that exclusion of Negroes from unions is on its way out.

"George Meany said at the AFL-CIO convention two weeks ago, 'It is not the policy of union men to work with nonunion men,'" Hill said.

"This is a violation of the National Labor Relations Act. The law is clear on this point. The stranglehold of the lily- white closed shop in the building and construction trades is once and for all broken. . .

"If whites walk off the job, we urge that contractors dismiss them and replace them with Negro workers. . .

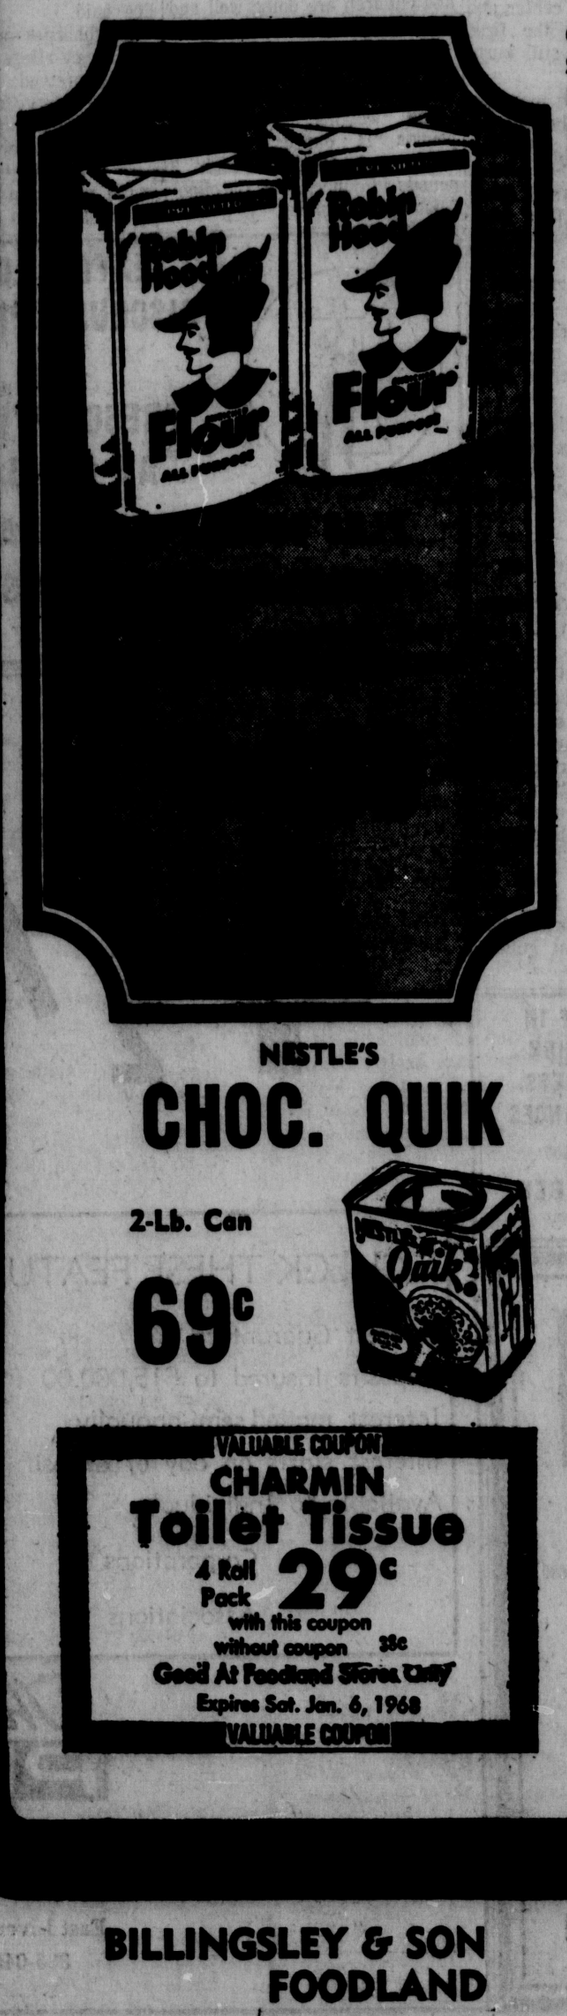

"One of the 11 points of the (Ohio State) agreement says contractors will engage in open hiring, recruit from a variety of sources, not limit themselves to AFL-CIO hiring halls. . . we shall seek similar agreements elsewhere in Ohio and in other states."

Q. — How can I prevent my iron from sticking on starched clothing, and building up a messy residue?

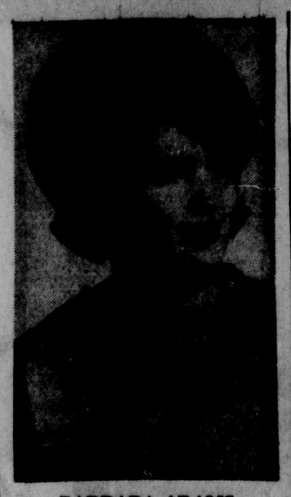

A. — When you spray - starch your clothing before ironing, turn the clothes inside out and spray on the underside. Then, when you iron, reverse the clothing and iron on the right side. In this way you'll get the full benefit from your spray-starch without its building up on your iron.

Q. — What can I do when my homemade soup has become too greasy?

A. — Just put a big lettuce leaf on top of the soup. When the grease gathers around the leaf, remove it (and the grease) from the pot.

Q. — How can I rewhiten the dirty - looking tapes on my Venetian blinds?

A. — White shoe polish does a good job of this.

MORGANTI told Patrolman K. J. Montgomery he was westbound on W. 8th St. at about 25 miles an hour. As he approached Shadyside Ave., Christy pulled up to the stop sign at the intersection, "slowed a little" and then pulled into his path, Morganti said.

Christy told police he pulled off Shadyside Ave. onto W. 8th St. and his car was hit by Morganti's. The collision damaged the left front fender, hood, grill and bumper of Morganti's car and the left front fender, hood, door and windshield of Christy's auto, police said.

Ohio Traffic Fatal To 13 Over Holiday

By The Associated Press

One of the lowest holiday weekend traffic death tolls ever was recorded in Ohio over the long New Year's weekend. Thirteen deaths were reported between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Monday.

Record cold weather and a full day of football bowl games on television apparently kept many motorists indoors Monday, as only two deaths were reported New Year's Day.

The surprisingly low total was in sharp contrast to the 34 deaths that had been predicted by the State Highway Safety Department. The toll for Christmas weekend was 27, and 22 persons died on Ohio Highways New Year's weekend a year ago.

The latest victims:

Emmett E. Ward, 35, Akron, killed Saturday morning when his car went out of control and hit a tree in Akron.

Mary E. Beatty, 79, London, who was hit by a pickup truck while crossing a London street Saturday night.

Iona Hatcock, 52, Lebanon, killed in a two - car accident early Saturday at a Dayton intersection.

Ruth Richards, 65, Fremont, was killed Sunday in a two car accident west of Fremont.

Robert Gruenhagen, 17, Rt. 1 Napoleon, and Mary Ann Behfeldt, 18, and Martha Moser, 17, both of Rt. 3, Defiance, were killed Sunday when their car slid on a curve on a Defiance County road, hit a bridge abutment and went into a creek bed.

Kenneth J. Mercer, 17, Carrollton, was killed Sunday as his car and a truck collided on Ohio 39 four miles west of Carrollton.

Timothy D. Miller, 17, Dayton, died late Sunday night in a two - car collision west of Xenia in Greene County.

Cheryle Ingram, 20, Cuyahoga Falls, when the car in which she was a passenger rammed into a utility pole in Cuyahoga Falls Monday.

Margie Wiley, 44, Dayton, killed Monday evening when the car she was riding in smashed into a pole on an East Dayton street.

Croyle Returned By Willshaw As City Dog Warden

Robert J. Croyle of 175 Thompson Ave., who served as city dog warden until about four years ago, took the oath of office today from Mayor George E. Willshaw to serve again.

Croyle replaces Harold Flowers, who served nearly four years. The City Code says the mayor shall appoint a warden at the beginning of each new year.

Croyle previously served as warden for four years during the two administrations of former Mayor Bert H. Goodballet. A native of Midland, he has been employed since 1939 at the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Co. The dog warden's post is part-time.

The mayor announced the administration will continue the practice of the police department accepting complaints on dogs. The written complaints then will be turned over to the warden daily for investigation, he said. Persons with dog complaints should telephone the police department at 385-1234, the mayor said.

More Buildings Will Be Erected At West Liberty

WEST LIBERTY, W. Va. — West Liberty State College has announced a 1968 building program involving the expenditure of nearly $6 million.

Included are a library, two residence halls, a major student union addition and 10 faculty houses. President Paul N. Elbin says that West Liberty's continued 11 per cent average annual enrollment increase requires further expansion of plant facilities.

Foremost among the projects is the three-story library to cost $1.8 million. Groundbreaking is expected by mid-year. State funds of $1.2 million and $600,000 from a federal matching grant will be used.

Bids will be opened Feb. 1 for constructing an addition to West Liberty's student union. The new section will triple the facilities available on the campus for student and faculty recreational purposes and snack bar service. The estimated cost of $900,000 will be met by a federal loan of $500,000 and the sale of $400,00 in revenue bonds.

Bids will be advertised soon for constructing six apartments and four three - bedroom dwellings for rental to faculty and staff. Construction costs will be met by the sale of revenue bonds issued by the West Virginia Board of Education to be financed by rentals.

31 Motorcycle Club Members Arrested

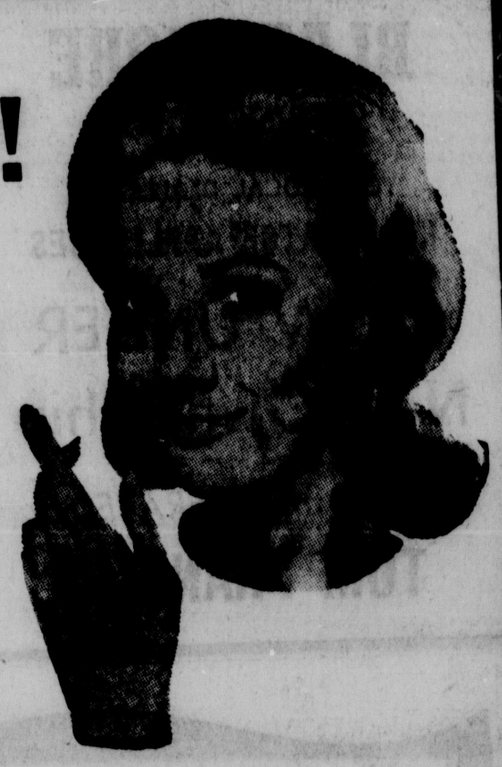

LIMA, Ohio (AP)— Thirty-one members of the Outlaws Motorcycle Club were arrested early Monday following a disturbance at a New Year's party at a roller skating rink just outside Lima.

Allen County sheriff's deputies said the party and a subsequent fire blamed on club members caused more than $1,000 damage to the Circle Roller Rink, whose owners told officials they thought the party was for a group of factory employes.

Those arrested, including five women, were charged with malicious destruction. Deputies said the Outlaws came from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.

29th Moon Launch Set

U.S. Readies Final Unmanned Lunar Probe

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's 29th and last unmannel moon probe, Surveyor 7, is to be launched next Sunday toward a soft-landing in the rugged highlands near the Crater Tycho.

After that, the next U.S. moon explorer will be man himself, perhaps in 1969.

The Surveyor 7 launching will climax an extensive American lunar survey program that started Aug. 17, 1958, with the first of the ill-starred Thor-Able rockets. The rocket exploded 77 seconds after liftoff, triggering a string of 12 straight moon shot failures in the Pioneer, Atlas-Able and Ranger series.

Ranger 7 broke the jinx in July 1964 when it took the first close-up photos of the moon before crash-landing as intended.

Since then, the American lunar launch record has been remarkable, with 13 of the last 16 shots successful in the Ranger. Lunar Orbiter, Surveyor and Lunar Explorer series.

Russia has launched 17 moon rockets, eight of them successful. The Soviets scored many lunar firsts—first to hit the moon, first to photograph the backside, first to make a semi-soft landing and the first to orbit the moon.

But the Russian spacecraft have provided only a small fraction of the data obtained by the more sophisticated U.S. vehicles, according to American experts.

The most significant U.S. data came from the Lunar Orbiter and Surveyor projects.

The Lunar Orbiters scored five successes in five attempts and photographed the entire front side of the moon, including 10 potential astronaut landing sites, and 90 per cent of the hidden backside. The performances earned nearly $7 million in bonus money for the spacecraft prime contractor, the Boeing Co.

Four of the six Surveyor craft successfully soft-landed and relayed thousands of pictures, dug up soil samples and analyzed the chemical composition of the moon's topsoil. They verified that the four primary astronaut landing sites are safe for manned expeditions. Two of the sites are in the Sea of Storms and one each in the Sea of Tranquility and the Central Bay.

With the four sites verified, the Surveyor program had fulfilled its commitment to support the Apollo man-to-the-moon project. So the National Aeronautics and Space Adiministration decided to use the final Surveyor, No. 7, to study an area of high scientific interest.

The highlands of Tycho were selected because they appear to be geologically different from the relatively smooth Apollo landing regions. The soil in the already-explored areas is very much like that found over large sections of the earth, including the U.S.

Lunar orbiter photos show the 53-mile-wide Tycho crater with its 15,000-foot-high rim rising from a mountain landscape heavily pocked with smaller craters. A large system of rays, like grooves or ridges, extends thousands of miles outward from the crater.

Robert E. Sears, Surveyor program manager for Hughes Aircraft Co., the prime contractor, said Surveyor 7 will carry a greater scientific payload than any of its predecessors.

Included will be a revolving camera, a claw-like device to dig trenches in the surface, a small chemistry lab to analyze the soil, and two small magnets to detect if any iron or other magnetic material is present.

IT&T Cancels ABC Merger Agreement

NEW YORK (AP) — Directors of the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. have voted unanimously to cancel ITT's agreement for a $2.8 billion merger with the American Broadcasting Companies Inc.

The proposed merged, which would have been the largest in broadcasting history was fought by the Department of Justice on antitrust and other grounds.

The ITT directors voted Monday at an unusual New Year's Day meeting, only hours after the Dec. 31 deadline that had been set for either party to withdraw from the two-year-old merger agreement.

The directors cited long delays and indications of more delays in obtaining final approval of the consolidation.

Leonard H. Goldenson, president of the American Broadcasting Companies Inc., said he regretted the ITT decision. He said that while the merger was pending, ABC's corporate hands were tied, but now it plans to "move vigorously and forcefully to strengthen and expand our company's interests and growth." He indicated that other mergers may figure in ABC's plans.

Taft To Seek Re-Election To U.S. House

CINCINNATI (AP) — Congressman Robert Taft Jr. said Tuesday he will seek re-election to the U. S. House of Representatives in Ohio's First District.

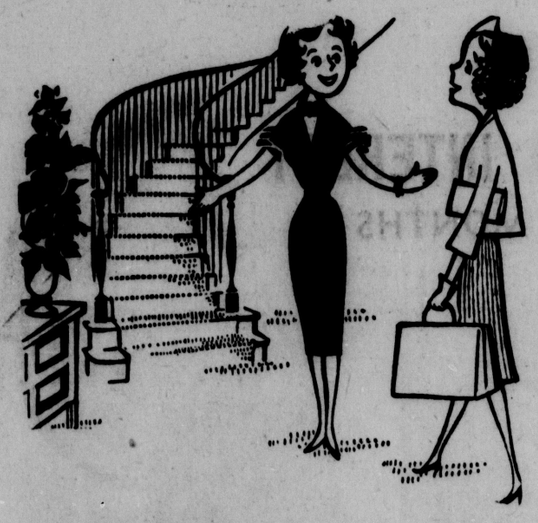

Making his announcement in Cincinnati, Taft said:

"I have decided not to become a candidate for the U.S. Senate against Sen. Frank J. Lausche. My reasons are personal and override current political prospects and issues."

Taft defeated incumbent John J. Gilligan of Cincinnati, a Democrat, in 1966 for the First District seat. He previously had served in the House as an Ohio Congressman-at-large and lost in 1964 by a narrow margin to U.S. Sen. Stephen Young for the Senate seat.

Gilligan, now a Cincinnati councilman, has been mentioned as a possible opponent of Lausche for the Senate seat.

Gilligan was elected to the City Council only last November. He also had served on the Council before being elected to Congress.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's 29th and last unmannel moon probe, Surveyor 7, is to be launched next Sunday toward a soft-landing in the rugged highlands near the Crater Tycho.

After that, the next U.S. moon explorer will be man himself, perhaps in 1969.

The Surveyor 7 launching will climax an extensive American lunar survey program that started Aug. 17, 1958, with the first of the ill-starred Thor-Able rockets. The rocket exploded 77 seconds after liftoff, triggering a string of 12 straight moon shot failures in the Pioneer, Atlas-Able and Ranger series.

Ranger 7 broke the jinx in July 1964 when it took the first close-up photos of the moon before crash-landing as intended.

Since then, the American lunar launch record has been remarkable, with 13 of the last 16 shots successful in the Ranger, Lunar Orbiter, Surveyor and Lunar Explorer series.

Russia has launched 17 moon rockets, eight of them successful. The Soviets scored many lunar firsts—first to hit the moon, first to photograph the backside, first to make a semi-soft landing and the first to orbit the moon.

But the Russian spacecraft have provided only a small fraction of the data obtained by the more sophisticated U.S. vehicles, according to American experts.

The most significant U.S. data came from the Lunar Orbiter and Surveyor projects.

The Lunar Orbiters scored five successes in five attempts and photographed the entire front side of the moon, including 10 potential astronaut landing sites, and 90 per cent of the hidden backside. The performances earned nearly $7 million in bonus money for the spacecraft prime contractor, the Boeing Co.

Four of the six Surveyor craft successfully soft-landed and relayed thousands of pictures, dug up soil samples and analyzed the chemical composition of the moon's topsoil. They verified that the four primary astronaut landing sites are safe for manned expeditions. Two of the sites are in the Sea of Storms and one each in the Sea of Tranquility and the Central Bay.

With the four sites verified, the Surveyor program had fulfilled its commitment to support the Apollo man-to-the-moon project. So the National Aeronautics and Space Adiministration decided to use the final Surveyor, No. 7, to study an area of high scientific interest.

The highlands of Tycho were selected because they appear to be geologically different from the relatively smooth Apollo landing regions. The soil in the already-explored areas is very much like that found over large sections of the earth, including the U.S.

Lunar orbiter photos show the 53-mile-wide Tycho crater with its 15,000-foot-high rim rising from a mountain landscape heavily pocked with smaller craters. A large system of rays, like grooves or ridges, extends thousands of miles outward from the crater.

Robert E. Sears, Surveyor program manager for Hughes Aircraft Co., the prime contractor, said Surveyor 7 will carry a greater scientific payload than any of its predecessors.

Included will be a revolving camera, a claw-like device to dig trenches in the surface, a small chemistry lab to analyze the soil, and two small magnets to detect if any iron or other magnetic material is present.

IT&T Cancels ABC Merger Agreement

NEW YORK (AP) — Directors of the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. have voted unanimously to cancel ITT's agreement for a $2.8 billion merger with the American Broadcasting Companies Inc.

The proposed merged, which would have been the largest in broadcasting history was fought by the Department of Justice on antitrust and other grounds.

The ITT directors voted Monday at an unusual New Year's Day meeting, only hours after the Dec. 31 deadline that had been set for either party to withdraw from the two-year-old merger agreement.

The directors cited long delays and indications of more delays in obtaining final approval of the consolidation.

Leonard H. Goldenson, president of the American Broadcasting Companies Inc., said he regretted the ITT decision. He said that while the merger was pending, ABC's corporate hands were tied, but now it plans to "move vigorously and forcefully to strengthen and expand our company's interests and growth." He indicated that other mergers may figure in ABC's plans.

Taft To Seek Re-Election To U.S. House

CINCINNATI (AP) — Congressman Robert Taft Jr. said Tuesday he will seek re-election to the U. S. House of Representatives in Ohio's First District.

Making his announcement in Cincinnati, Taft said:

"I have decided not to become a candidate for the U.S. Senate against Sen. Frank J. Lausche. My reasons are personal and override current political prospects and issues."

Taft defeated incumbent John J. Gilligan of Cincinnati, a Democrat, in 1966 for the First District seat. He previously had served in the House as an Ohio Congressman-at-large and lost in 1964 by a narrow margin to U.S. Sen. Stephen Young for the Senate seat.

Gilligan, now a Cincinnati councilman, has been mentioned as a possible opponent of Lausche for the Senate seat.

Gilligan was elected to the City Council only last November. He also had served on the Council before being elected to Congress.

DEAR FOLKS: I just hope no one got Christmas tree sap or holly berry stains on their rugs or upholstery this year.

But if you did, here's some expert information from the National Institute of Dry Cleaning on how to remove the stains.

"The men in the Analysis Department stained some fabrics with the sap from spruce and pine boughs and the red berries from holly. This is what they found:

"The sap of the boughs is called "pitch." If you apply detergent and water to the stain, you cannot remove it. The stains is removable by a dry-cleaning solvent. So the homemaker should use an approved cleaning fluid that can be purchased at a drug or department store. In an emergency, she could use the fluid she uses to fill her cigarette lighter.

"The juice from the holly berry is a stubborn stain that looks like ink, but lacks the intensity of ink. To remove it, make a detergent and water solution. Use a clean cheesecloth or a clean toothbrush and work the solution into the fabric. Absorb the moisture with a turkish towel. Then apply clear water in the same manner, absorbing the excess with a towel.

"This is as far as a homemaker should proceed. A professional rug cleaner or upholstery cleaner (or in case of wearing apparel, a drycleaner) should be consulted.

"The reason we recommend this is because of the many fibers and dye combinations possible in fabrics today. The agents used to reduce the color of the stain will vary for different dyes and fibers. The misuse of chemicals by the homemaker at this stage could result in permanent damage."

And thanks to the NIDC for this advice.

I discovered this idea when I needed heavy-duty rods for some drapes I made from velveteen and couldn't afford to buy the large wooden ones.

DEAR HELOISE: There may still be some housewives who don't know that you can use a regular devil's food cake mix to make brownies.

I only use one egg, one-fourth cup of water and add some nuts to the cake mix. Then I stir — it will be very thick — and press the batter into a greased 9x14-inch pan.

Now bake at 350 degrees just 20-25 minutes for a chewy type brownie — slightly longer for the cake type. You will find this method less expensive than the brownie mix and every bit as good.

Man Is Arrested In Beating Death Of Warren Boy

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — A 23-year-old man was arrested by Liberty Township police Monday for questioning in the death of a Howland High School sophomore who was injured in a fight following a basketball game.

Liberty Township Police Chief John Bluedorn said he would confer with Trumbull County authorities today on charges.

Robert Dority, 15, died Sunday in North Side Hospital at Youngstown of brain injuries suffered in a fight Dec. 21 following the basketball game between Howland and Hubbard high schools at Hubbard.

Police said witnesses identified the man being held as the one who hit Dority, whose death was ruled a homicide Monday by Dr. Phillip Geiber, Trumbull County deputy coroner.

Dority and five companions were driving home from the basketball game when their car was stopped at Churchill by another carload of persons and a fight over the game ensued, police said.

Pact Accord Ends Transit Strike Threat

NEW YORK (AP) — The first regular work day of the new year was a happy one for New Yorkers today. They had subway and bus service after weeks of worry about the threat of a transit strike.

As a bonus, they had word from Mayor John V. Lindsay that the Transit Authority said its contract settlement with two unions Monday would not cause a raise in the 20-cent fare in the "foreseeable future."

The fare had gone up 5 cents as a result of the settlement that ended the crippling 12-day subway and bus strike which started New Year's Day two years ago.

The Transit Authority and two unions representing its employes reached agreement on new two-year contracts shortly before 7 a.m. Monday. The original strike deadline of 5 a.m. had been extended two hours as 39 hours of almost continuous bargaining neared a climax.

The new agreements are subject to ratification by the members of the AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union (TWU), which represents 36,000 transit employes, and the AFL-CIO Amalgamated Transit Union, which represents 1,700 others.

A major feature of the settlement will permit an employe to retire at half pay after 20 years of service if he has reached 50 years of age. The TWU had fought for retirement at half pay after 20 years without any age provision.

The settlement also provides an immediate 5 per cent wage increase and a 6 per cent increase on July 1, 1969. The TWU had fought for an across-the-board wage increase of 30 per cent. Current wages range from $3.18 to $4.16 an hour.

Zanesville Councilman Elected New Mayor

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)— Russell Painter, 56, one of Zanesville's seven city councilmen, was elected by the other councilmen Monday night to serve as mayor.

Reorganizational Meeting Held

Ferrall Again Will Head Wellsville School Board

Miss Mary Jenkins, Dr. Frank Rivelle and Phillip Chronister assumed their duties as new members of the Wellsville Board of Education during a reorganization meeting Monday morning at Beacom Memorial gym.

They were administered the oath of office by Raymond Rolley, clerk.

William Ferrall was re-elected president and Charles Glass, who served as temporary chairman, was named vice president. Dr. Janis Lauva, Dan MacLean and Russell Dysert were the retiring members.

—:—

CLERK ROLLEY was unanimously reappointed for a second four - year term expiring in 1971.

School board members approved the appointment of Edgar Davidson for a seven-year term to the Carnegie Library Board.

Temporary appropriations of $225,000 for the general fund and $10,000 for the cafeteria were unanimously approved. No appropriation was needed for the bond retirement since the final payment was made in December.

Ferrall thanked the members for their vote of confidence and expressed the opinion that some major improvements — physical and academic — can be made due to the passage of the 5-mill levy. Rolley pointed out the school is now a million-dollar operation.

Supt. Donald Lowe reported that a representative of the Business Education Department of the state will be in his office Jan. 11 at 12:30 p.m. to meet with Miss Jenkins and Dr. Rivelle, committee members, and himself. A study and recommendations for the launching of a business education program, in which the state would provide half the cost of equipment, will be made.

A REPORT on a recent meeting for the proposed establishment of a countywide vocational high school was given by Ferrall. He said the millage need for a building, equipment and instructors was discussed and more figures will be presented at the next meeting.

Ferrall expressed the hope that if a vocational high school is set up it will be on two levels, one for slow learners and the other for exceptional learners.

The second Monday of each month again was chosen as the meeting night. The group will meet next Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the gym.

Asphyxiation Seen Cause Of Man's Death

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 26-year-old man was found dead Monday at a service station in North Olmsted, where he had been employed a short time.

Police said Gregory Moore, Cleveland, apparently was the victim of accidental asphyxiation. The coroner will rule.

Snowplow Hit By Car, Youth Hospitalized

Terry L. Potts, 20, of 48 D St., Van Buren Homes, Beaver, remains in "satisfactory" condition today at Rochester General Hospital following an accident Monday at 2:05 a.m. on Route 68, Industry Borough.

A car in which he was a passenger struck a snowplow. Potts suffered facial lacerations.

He was a passenger in a 1967 sports coupe driven by Phillip D. Johnson, 17, of Shippingport.

The auto is owned by Jessie R. Johnson of the same address.

Potts was taken to the hospital by a passerby. Johnson was taken to the hospital by ambulance and treated for a laceration of the lower lip.

Police Chief Ray Hendershot said the snowplow, operated by Ross Strohm, was partly on the highway while plowing a side street near the entrance to St. Christine's Church. Johnson was traveling too fast for road conditions, the chief said.

Three Claimed In W.Va. Traffic

West Virginia recorded three traffic fatalities during the New Year Holiday weekend.

Laurie Fawkes, 19, of Roxbury, Md., was the state's first traffic fatality of 1968. She was struck by a car Monday night as she was crossing W.Va. 35 at Poca, Kanawha County.

Mrs. Bernice Marie Lengyel, 42, the town recorder of Sylvester, was killed Sunday in a two-car collision at Seth, Boone County.

Timothy Balog, 6, of Follansbee, Brooke County, died Sunday night in a Pittsburgh hospital from injuries suffered in a collision at Follansbee.

He was a passenger in a 1967 sports coupe driven by Phillip D. Johnson, 17, of Shippingport.

The auto is owned by Jessie R. Johnson of the same address.

Potts was taken to the hospital by a passerby. Johnson was taken to the hospital by ambulance and treated for a laceration of the lower lip.

Police Chief Ray Hendershot said the snowplow, operated by Ross Strohm, was partly on the highway while plowing a side street near the entrance to St. Christine's Church. Johnson was traveling too fast for road conditions, the chief said.

No Guarantee For Court Poetry

By MICHAEL CODEL
Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — Cecil Day-Lewis, Britain's new poet laureate, puts news events into verse and writes subtle mystery books under another name. He has said his nomination as court poet would not guarantee he'd write court poetry.

"I wouldn't be able to write court poetry," the 63-year-old laureate once said. "I'm not disloyal to the royal family, but I couldn't write that sort of thing. You can only write things that move one."

Things that have moved Day-Lewis have been Sir Francis Chichester's round-the-world solo sail, the landslide disaster at the Welsh village of Aberfan and last year's wreck of the oil tanker Torrey Canyon. The poem about the ill-fated tanker was set to music.

Sources report Day-Lewis still intends to dodge topics that don't move him, although his post requires him to write on state occasions.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson named Day-Lewis Monday to fill the post left vacant by the death last May of John Masefield at the age of 91. Wilson named Day-Lewis over Robert Graves—whom Day-Lewis called "the best poet in the country"—and over John Betjeman, William Plomer and Edmund Blunden.

If Day-Lewis never pens a line of court verse, however, he will be in good company. Robert Bridges, Masefield's predecessor, never wrote any state-occasion verse.

Other celebrated English poets who have held the post were William Wordsworth, Robert Southey and Alfred Tennyson. The job dates to the 17th century and pays $168 a year plus a $64.80 grant in place of the cask of sherry originally given to laureates.

Day-Lewis is probably best known as Nicholas Blake, mystery writer. His detective stories are intellectual thrillers more than blood-and-thunder epics. They include titles such as "Minutes of Murder" and "The Buried Day."

Day-Lewis started writing mysteries years ago to pay a $240 bill to patch a leaky roof. The Blake mysteries sold so well that he was able to retire as a schoolmaster and, living on mystery earnings, turn to his first love: Poetry.

Day-Lewis was born in Ireland in 1904, graduated from Oxford, and published his first poems in 1929. He became a member of the Communist party but broke with it in 1939 and today is a Socialist.

He lives in Greenwich with his second wife, Jill, their two children, two cats and a bird. His first marriage, was dissolved in 1951.

Warning Issued On Frozen Lines

Area fire departments today issued a warning against thawing frozen water lines with open flames.

The cold snap has caused the usual difficulty with frozen lines and firemen cautioned that open flames from burning newspapers, torches or the like can be extremely hazardous.

Firemen suggest anyone with frozen lines use electric heat lamps, place an iron on the line or use some other heat-producing element that does not produce a flame.

East Liverpool firemen were called Monday at 5:15 p.m. to the Johnston Apartments at 314 Market St. when an occupant started a fire in a false ceiling while attempting to thaw frozen water lines with an open flame.

The damage was minor, but firemen said they had to break through the wall to get at the blaze.

Roads, Jobs Rhodes' Aims During 1968

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Building highways and creating thousands of news jobs for Ohioans will be two major aims of Gov. James A. Rhodes in 1968.

"The coming year will be one of great opportunity and of great challenge for Ohio," the governor said in a year-end statement.

"The momentum built up over the past five years, in which records were broken in new capital investment, new and expanded manufacturing plants, and new jobs created, must be maintained."

Rhodes also released details of how his proposed $700 million highway bond issue would be spent, he says, to enable Ohio to build new highways and get rid of traffic bottlenecks in urban areas. At the same time, State Finance Director Richard L. Krabach said the issue an be financed without any new taxes.

The governor said if the legislature decides to place the issue on the ballot and if it is then approved by voters in the May primary, $275 million in direct grants would be available to Ohio communities to help solve traffic problems.

Rhodes said the bond issue also would provide $265 million to the department of highways to accelerate highway construction; $100 million to complete the Appalachian highway system in Southern Ohio; $30 million to construct the transportation research and development center near Bellefontaine, and $30 million to provide needed access road to open 150,000 acres of outdoor recreational lands which are linaccessible.

Krabach said there are "ample funds available to finance these improvements out of existing funds" without any additional taxes.

"We can use the present 1-cent gas tax and the axle mile tax for the payments," he said. "The $500 million issued during the term of Gov. Frank Lausche will be paid by 1973. There would be ample receipts to pay off the ($500 million bond) issue authorized in 1963 by the year 1977."

The $700 million highway bond is in addition to the comprehensive $265 million bond issue proposed by Rhodes for capital improvements.

Rhodes called on all Ohioans, "Republicans and Democrats alike," to join his efforts in creating more jobs.

To provide the 62,000 new jobs, Rhodes said, about $2.2 billion in capital investment by industry will be needed, more than 2,200 plants must expand and more than 500 new plants will have to be located in Ohio in 1968.

Plane Slated To Pick Team Up Crashes

The three crew members aboard escaped without injury but the plane, a twin-engine Martin 404 owned by Southern Airways, was destroyed. There were no passengers in the craft.

Wreck Injuries Fatal

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Raymond Weitershausen, 23, Burghill, who suffered a skull fracture and other injuries in a traffic accident last month, died Monday in St. Elizabeth Hospital here. He was injured Dec. 16 when his car went off Ohio 888 and struck a culvert in Trumbull County.

Roads, Jobs Rhodes' Aims During 1968

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Building highways and creating thousands of news jobs for Ohioans will be two major aims of Gov. James A. Rhodes in 1968.

"The coming year will be one of great opportunity and of great challenge for Ohio," the governor said in a year-end statement.

"The momentum built up over the past five years, in which records were broken in new capital investment, new and expanded manufacturing plants, and new jobs created, must be maintained."

Rhodes also released details of how his proposed $700 million highway bond issue would be spent, he says, to enable Ohio to build new highways and get rid of traffic bottlenecks in urban areas. At the same time, State Finance Director Richard L. Krabach said the issue an be financed without any new taxes.

The governor said if the legislature decides to place the issue on the ballot and if it is then approved by voters in the May primary, $275 million in direct grants would be available to Ohio communities to help solve traffic problems.

Rhodes said the bond issue also would provide $265 million to the department of highways to accelerate highway construction; $100 million to complete the Appalachian highway system in Southern Ohio; $30 million to construct the transportation research and development center near Bellefontaine, and $30 million to provide needed access road to open 150,000 acres of outdoor recreational lands which are linaccessible.

Krabach said there are "ample funds available to finance these improvements out of existing funds" without any additional taxes.

"We can use the present 1-cent gas tax and the axle mile tax for the payments," he said. "The $500 million issued during the term of Gov. Frank Lausche will be paid by 1973. There would be ample receipts to pay off the ($500 million bond) issue authorized in 1963 by the year 1977."

The $700 million highway bond is in addition to the comprehensive $265 million bond issue proposed by Rhodes for capital improvements.

Rhodes called on all Ohioans, "Republicans and Democrats alike," to join his efforts in creating more jobs.

To provide the 62,000 new jobs, Rhodes said, about $2.2 billion in capital investment by industry will be needed, more than 2,200 plants must expand and more than 500 new plants will have to be located in Ohio in 1968.

Plane Slated To Pick Team Up Crashes

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — A chartered plane landing to pick up the University of Georgia basketball team crashed and burned Monday night while the team watched.

The three crew members aboard escaped without injury but the plane, a twin-engine Martin 404 owned by Southern Airways, was destroyed. There were no passengers in the craft.

"The boys that saw it said it looked like it landed on the front gear (wheels) and nosed into the runway," Georgia head coach Ken Rosemond said.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: When I was a senior in high school, I began to go steady with Jimmy. He was handsome, smooth, popular, athletic and sexy. I thought I was the luckiest girl alive and I knocked myself out to please him.

It wouldn't be fair to say he talked me into going all the way. I didn't need much persuading.

One day I thought I was pregnant and I almost went out of my mind. When I told Jimmy, he said it was up to the girl to take care of herself and if she got pregnant, she shouldn't come crying to her boyfriend and expect him to wreck his whole future because of her dumbness.

Two days later I learned I was not pregnant. When I told Jimmy, he was all smiles and ready to start in again where we had left off. I gave him his ring, his sweater, his picture and his Monkee albums and told him goodby.

This all happened two years ago. Now I'm 20 and going with a really great guy. We have talked about marriage next year after he's graduated from college. The problem is this: He knows I went with Jimmy, but he doesn't know I slept with him.

Should I tell him? If so, how? Please help me. — SPEECHLESS GIRL.

Dear Girl: I've dealt with this problem numerous times but I'll go through it again. It's like this:

If the groom gets a white flower girl, fine and dandy. Some grooms refuse to settle for less. I assume, of course, that such a rigid and unbending fellow is bringing to the marriage chamber the same qualities of purity he expects from his beloved.

No man has the right to demand the name and number of a previous player or even the information that there was a previous player. A premarital affair is part of a girl's past which is her private business.

Too often, a girl, in her mistaken belief that she must present a history report in order to be completely honest, relates the details of a past indiscretion and discovers, to her horror, that 10 years later her husband still is calling her a tramp.

Please note, an out-of-wedlock child is more than an indiscretion and should not be kept a secret.

And now I await the barrage of mail roasting me because I'm "encouraging girls to lie." Please save your stamps, folks. Here's my answer: It is not lying to say to a fiance: "Accept me as I am or don't accept me at all."

Slickered Again

Dear Ann: My neighbor's husband who works nights asked if I would sleep in their house until his wife recovered from a serious illness.

For 10 months I went to my nieghbor's at 9:30 p.m. and stayed until 6 a.m. Then I went home and got my family's breakfast and sent my children off to school.

Nothing was said about money because I did it as a friend. But it was a very demanding schedule and the woman and her husband mentioned many times that when they sold their business they would give me a generous gift.

The business was sold last month. The only comment they made was, "We certainly didn't get as much for the business as we thought we would."

I have not received one red cent and I feel as if I have been taken for a fool. What can I do about it now? — LA CROSSE.

-:-

Dear La Crosse: Now you can forget it. Even though you say you did it as a friend, it is obvious you were expecting to be paid — and I feel you should have been paid. The time to have settled on the price, however, was the very first night.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Piercing Cold Spreads East

By The Associated Press

Freezing rain, drizzle, snow or sleet slicked highways from the northern Rockies to Dixie today as the piercing cold that numbed the Midwest spread through the East.

Another blast of frigid air moved down into the north-central states. Sub-zero readings were widespread.

Hazardous driving warnings were in effect for an 11-state area from Wyoming to North Carolina.

New England ushered in the new year with bitter cold temperatures. Readings dropped to 20 below zero in parts of northern New England and to zero to 5 below in southern sections. A New Year's Eve snowstorm covered the region with an average of 4 inches of snow.

It was cold and clear in upstate New York. Early morning temperatures generally were well below zero. It was 29 below in Massena and in the St. Lawrence Valley.

The middle and western sections of Tennessee and the Cumberland Plateau area of eastern Tennessee had rough driving conditions with an accumulated snowfall on top of frozen rain. Several counties and cities in the area—mostly in middle Tennessee—closed schools today and some industrial plants also shut down. Driving conditions throughout most of the state were treacherous.

Friendship International Airport near Baltimore, Md. had an early morning reading of 5 degrees. In Baltimore it was 16 degrees.

Biting cold weather settled over Minnesota and the Dakotas and overnight temperatures were expected to drop to —35 in the northern regions of North Dakota and Minnesota. The Weather Bureau said daytime highs probably would not edge above the zero mark in most of the region. There was a light snow cover in the area, but no travel problems were reported.

Hike Due Sunday In Postal Rates

Increased rates for all classes of mail except parcel post and international mail will go into effect Jan. 7, district postmasters reminded today.

The rates will be 6 cents for first-class mail and 10 cents for air mail.

For 6 cents a letter can be sent to any of the 50 states, to any U.S. territory or possession, to Canada or Mexico and to any American serviceman stationed anywhere in the world.

THE NEW rate for postcards will be 5 cents and for air mail postcards 8 cents.

The postmasters said the added cent in the letter rate is a 20 per cent increase, compared with a 24 per cent boost in the rates for mailing newspapers and magazines and a 34 per cent boost in the rates for advertising circulars, occupant mail and other material in the third-class category.

The new rate of 6 cents per ounce for first - class mail applies up to 13 ounces and the new rate of 10 cents per ounce for air mail applies up to 7 ounces. Under the new structure, all first-class mail over 13 ounces and all air mail over 7 ounces will be merged into a single category.

These heavier pieces of first-class and air mail subject to the single rate schedule will be delivered by the fastest available means of transportation, postal authorities said.

A flat rate of 80 cents will be charged for all mail in this category up to one pound. For all mail weighing more than one pound, the present air parcel post rates will continue to apply, except that postage matter weighing between one and five pounds will change at half - pound intervals rather than one pound intervals.

The new rate structure will mean a reduction of postage on some parcels, officials pointed out.

ANOTHER rate change that will affect the general public is the increase from 4 to 6 cents for the first two ounces of individual pieces of third - class mail. Unsealed greeting cards may be sent at this rate.

The new rate on unsealed greeting cards will not go into effect until Jan. 7 and until then they can be mailed at the old rate of four cents.

Effective Jan. 7, special handling will be available on third-class parcels weighing between 8 and 16 ounces. Special handling has not been available on these parcels since 1958, when packages weighing between 8 and 16 ounces were transferred from fourth- to third-class mail.

There will be no changes in the charges for special delivery, special handling, registered mail, certified mail, cash on delivery or insurance.

THE AREA postmasters said they have an ample supply of one-cent stamps on hand for those people who have five-cent stamps and need one - cent stamps to make up the postage required under the new rates.

Higher rates also will go into effect Jan. 7 for all categories of second-class mail, bulk-rate third-class mail, controlled circulation mail and the educational materials category of fourth-class mail. Mailers using these classes who need information on the new rates should contact their local post offices.

Postage vending machines in the various offices will be converted within the next few months to reflect the new postage rates.

Most of the machines now provide 5-cent and 4-cent stamps for a nickel, dime or quarter. After the conversion, the machines will provide 5-cent and 6-cent stamps. A new model will offer 1-cent, 5-cent and 6-cent stamps.

The postmasters said that the vending machines located in the lobbies of post offices are not to be confused with commercial stamp vending devices found in many stores. Such commercial machines provide a margin for profit and are not controlled by the post office department, they explained.

June Driest Month

Weather Almost Normal In 1967, Observer Says

Except for posting the driest June on district records, the weather during 1967 was close to normal, Edwin Copeland, U.S. weather observer at Millport, reported in his annual summary.

The average temperature during the year was 48.6 degrees—just three-tenths of a degree below normal — and the rainfall amounted to 36.62 inches, only .38 below the normal 40 inches, he said.

—:—

THERE WERE nine nights of zero or below temperatures — one in January, seven in February and one in March. The low reading for the year was on Feb. 8 with a 16 degrees below zero.

June had six days of temperatures in the '90's, Copeland said—June 12-17. On four of these the mercury hit 92 degrees.

Only .69 of an inch rain fell during June, the second time on Copeland's 75-year records that there was less than an inch. The other time was June 1913 when .72 of an inch fell.

Snowfall totaled 40.25 inches, more than ten inches over the average of 30 inches. Three inches fell in January, 13.5 inches in February, 13.5 inches in March, 3.5 inches in November and 6.75 inches in December.

Rain fell on an average of every three days, a normal condition in this area. There were 122 days of rain.

—:—

DECEMBER'S weather showed the monthly average temperature was 33 degrees, warmer than the normal 29.5 degrees, Copeland said. There was a low of 1 degree on Dec. 30 and a high of 66 degrees on Dec. 21.

He said the high reading was only one less than the all-time hot mark for December—67 degrees Dec. 6, 1956.

Rainfall amounted to 2.88 inches, compated with the normal 2.54 inches, and the snowfall of 6.75 inches was well above the normal 5.7 inches for the month.

There were 20 cloudy days, five partly cloudy days and six clear days. Sunshine amounted to 27 per cent, just under the normal 30 per cent.

Sea anemones are delicate "flower animals" but they are extremely dangerous when approached too closely. Their hollow tentacles each have a poisonous barb with which they pierce and paralyze their victims.

Two Ohio Youths Drown When Car Goes Into Creek

FINDLEY LAKE, N.Y. (AP) — Two suburban Cleveland, Ohio, teen-agers drowned Monday and three others suffered minor injuries when their automobile plunged down a roadside embankment and into a creek near this community in extreme southwestern New York.

Killed were Thomas G. Spilka, 17, and Holli Hodge, 15, both of Rocky River, Ohio.

Three other Rocky River youths, Jeff Smyth, Robert Gladden and Keith Moran were treated for minor injuries at Hamot Hospital in Erie, Pa.

Sheriff's deputies said the youths were en route to a skiing center when the car missed a curve, went down the embankment and landed upside down in four feet of water.

Hot Year Politically Seen For Ohio In '68

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It will be a hot year politically in Ohio in 1968, as leaders of both parties have already begun to square off.

The main target is the U.S. Senate seat now held by Democrat Frank J. Lausche of Cleveland.

State Republican Chairman John S. Andrews added fuel to the political fire when he said over the weekend when he had been reliably informed that Rep. Robert Taft Jr. does not intend to seek the Republican nomination for the Senate.

Taft has been considered a strong frontrunner to challenge Lausche, who has already announced he will seek a third term.

Lausche also may face a battle within his own party, as former U. S. Rep. John J. Gilligan of Cincinnati told party leaders he would be available to challenge Lausche for the Democratic nomination.

On another front, the Associated Press learned that some Ohio Republicans reportedly are working to repeal a state law and allow Gov. James A. Rhodes to run for a third straight term as governor if he wants it.

Taft said he had no comment "one way or the other" on Andrews' statement, but added he would release a statement early this week.

A GOP official in Washington said in an interview over the weekend that Rhodes would be a good bet to unseat Lausche, but the governor has given no indications that he will consider running.

Andrews, who earlier had said either Taft or Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe would be a strong match for Lausche, apparently is throwing all of his support behind Saxbe. He said he will confer with Saxbe this week.

"Bill Saxbe is extremely well qualfied to serve in the U.S. Senate," Andrews said. "He has demonstrated outstanding ability in several positions of great responsibility, including that of speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives, as well as attorney general of Ohio."

Gilligan, in a letter to Democratic leaders, lashed out at the Republicans and Lausche," and said: "If the leaders of the Democratic party in Ohio decide that the time is ripe to unite in the development of a strong and progressive party, and if these leaders decide that I can play some useful role, I would be more than eager to join the effort."

Gilligan, beaten by Taft in the 1st District congressional race in 1966, is now a Cincinnati city councilman.

Rhodes had no comment on the plans to try and repeal a 1954 law prohibiting a person from serving more than two terms as governor. But his administrative aide, John McElroy, said the governor would not be interested.

Backers of the plan cited a survey which they say shows Rhodes' popularity at its highest and that voters have indicated they would favor a third term for Rhodes.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: When I was a senior in high school, I began to go steady with Jimmy. He was handsome, smooth, popular, athletic and sexy. I thought I was the luckiest girl alive and I knocked myself out to please him.

It wouldn't be fair to say he talked me into going all the way. I didn't need much persuading.

One day I thought I was pregnant and I almost went out of my mind. When I told Jimmy, he said it was up to the girl to take care of herself and if she got pregnant, she shouldn't come crying to her boyfriend and expect him to wreck his whole future because of her dumbness.

Two days later I learned I was not pregnant. When I told Jimmy, he was all smiles and ready to start in again where we had left off. I gave him his ring, his sweater, his picture and his Monkee albums and told him goodby.

This all happened two years ago. Now I'm 20 and going with a really great guy. We have talked about marriage next year after he's graduated from college. The problem is this: He knows I went with Jimmy, but he doesn't know I slept with him.

Should I tell him? If so, how? Please help me. — SPEECHLESS GIRL.

Dear Girl: I've dealt with this problem numerous times but I'll go through it again. It's like this:

If the groom gets a white flower girl, fine and dandy. Some grooms refuse to settle for less. I assume, of course, that such a rigid and unbending fellow is bringing to the marriage chamber the same qualities of purity he expects from his beloved.

No man has the right to demand the name and number of a previous player or even the information that there was a previous player. A premarital affair is part of a girl's past which is her private business.

Too often, a girl, in her mistaken belief that she must present a history report in order to be completely honest, relates the details of a past indiscretion and discovers, to her horror, that 10 years later her husband still is calling her a tramp.

Please note, an out-of-wedlock child is more than an indiscretion and should not be kept a secret.

And now I await the barrage of mail roasting me because I'm "encouraging girls to lie." Please save your stamps, folks. Here's my answer: It is not lying to say to a fiance: "Accept me as I am or don't accept me at all."

Slickered Again

Dear Ann: My neighbor's husband who works nights asked if I would sleep in their house until his wife recovered from a serious illness.

For 10 months I went to my nieghbor's at 9:30 p.m. and stayed until 6 a.m. Then I went home and got my family's breakfast and sent my children off to school.

Nothing was said about money because I did it as a friend. But it was a very demanding schedule and the woman and her husband mentioned many times that when they sold their business they would give me a generous gift.

The business was sold last month. The only comment they made was, "We certainly didn't get as much for the business as we thought we would."

I have not received one red cent and I feel as if I have been taken for a fool. What can I do about it now? — LA CROSSE.

-:-

Dear La Crosse: Now you can forget it. Even though you say you did it as a friend, it is obvious you were expecting to be paid — and I feel you should have been paid. The time to have settled on the price, however, was the very first night.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Piercing Cold Spreads East

By The Associated Press

Freezing rain, drizzle, snow or sleet slicked highways from the northern Rockies to Dixie today as the piercing cold that numbed the Midwest spread through the East.

Another blast of frigid air moved down into the north-central states. Sub-zero readings were widespread.

Hazardous driving warnings were in effect for an 11-state area from Wyoming to North Carolina.

New England ushered in the new year with bitter cold temperatures. Readings dropped to 20 below zero in parts of northern New England and to zero to 5 below in southern sections. A New Year's Eve snowstorm covered the region with an average of 4 inches of snow.

It was cold and clear in upstate New York. Early morning temperatures generally were well below zero. It was 29 below in Massena and in the St. Lawrence Valley.

The middle and western sections of Tennessee and the Cumberland Plateau area of eastern Tennessee had rough driving conditions with an accumulated snowfall on top of frozen rain. Several counties and cities in the area—mostly in middle Tennessee—closed schools today and some industrial plants also shut down. Driving conditions throughout most of the state were treacherous.

Friendship International Airport near Baltimore, Md. had an early morning reading of 5 degrees. In Baltimore it was 16 degrees.

Biting cold weather settled over Minnesota and the Dakotas and overnight temperatures were expected to drop to —35 in the northern regions of North Dakota and Minnesota. The Weather Bureau said daytime highs probably would not edge above the zero mark in most of the region. There was a light snow cover in the area, but no travel problems were reported.

Hike Due Sunday In Postal Rates

Increased rates for all classes of mail except parcel post and international mail will go into effect Jan. 7, district postmasters reminded today.

The rates will be 6 cents for first-class mail and 10 cents for air mail.

For 6 cents a letter can be sent to any of the 50 states, to any U.S. territory or possession, to Canada or Mexico and to any American serviceman stationed anywhere in the world.

THE NEW rate for postcards will be 5 cents and for air mail postcards 8 cents.

The postmasters said the added cent in the letter rate is a 20 per cent increase, compared with a 24 per cent boost in the rates for mailing newspapers and magazines and a 34 per cent boost in the rates for advertising circulars, occupant mail and other material in the third-class category.

The new rate of 6 cents per ounce for first - class mail applies up to 13 ounces and the new rate of 10 cents per ounce for air mail applies up to 7 ounces. Under the new structure, all first-class mail over 13 ounces and all air mail over 7 ounces will be merged into a single category.

These heavier pieces of first-class and air mail subject to the single rate schedule will be delivered by the fastest available means of transportation, postal authorities said.

A flat rate of 80 cents will be charged for all mail in this category up to one pound. For all mail weighing more than one pound, the present air parcel post rates will continue to apply, except that postage matter weighing between one and five pounds will change at half - pound intervals rather than one pound intervals.

The new rate structure will mean a reduction of postage on some parcels, officials pointed out.

ANOTHER rate change that will affect the general public is the increase from 4 to 6 cents for the first two ounces of individual pieces of third - class mail. Unsealed greeting cards may be sent at this rate.

The new rate on unsealed greeting cards will not go into effect until Jan. 7 and until then they can be mailed at the old rate of four cents.

Effective Jan. 7, special handling will be available on third-class parcels weighing between 8 and 16 ounces. Special handling has not been available on these parcels since 1958, when packages weighing between 8 and 16 ounces were transferred from fourth- to third-class mail.

There will be no changes in the charges for special delivery, special handling, registered mail, certified mail, cash on delivery or insurance.

THE AREA postmasters said they have an ample supply of one-cent stamps on hand for those people who have five-cent stamps and need one - cent stamps to make up the postage required under the new rates.

Higher rates also will go into effect Jan. 7 for all categories of second-class mail, bulk-rate third-class mail, controlled circulation mail and the educational materials category of fourth-class mail. Mailers using these classes who need information on the new rates should contact their local post offices.

Postage vending machines in the various offices will be converted within the next few months to reflect the new postage rates.

Most of the machines now provide 5-cent and 4-cent stamps for a nickel, dime or quarter. After the conversion, the mahines will provide 5-cent and 6-cent stamps. A new model will offer 1-cent, 5-cent and 6-cent stamps.

The postmasters said that the vending machines located in the lobbies of post offices are not to be confused with commercial stamp vending devices found in many stores. Such commercial machines provide a margin for profit and are not controlled by the post office department, they explained.

June Driest Month

Weather Almost Normal In 1967, Observer Says

Except for posting the driest June on district records, the weather during 1967 was close to normal, Edwin Copeland, U.S. weather observer at Millport, reported in his annual summary.

The average temperature during the year was 48.6 degrees—just three-tenths of a degree below normal — and the rainfall amounted to 36.62 inches, only .38 below the normal 40 inches, he said.

—:—

THERE WERE nine nights of zero or below temperatures — one in January, seven in February and one in March. The low reading for the year was on Feb. 8 with a 16 degrees below zero.

June had six days of temperatures in the '90's, Copeland said—June 12-17. On four of these the mercury hit 92 degrees.

Only .69 of an inch rain fell during June, the second time on Copeland's 75-year records that there was less than an inch. The other time was June 1913 when .72 of an inch fell.

Snowfall totaled 40.25 inches, more than ten inches over the average of 30 inches. Three inches fell in January, 13.5 inches in February, 13.5 inches in March, 3.5 inches in November and 6.75 inches in December.

Rain fell on an average of every three days, a normal condition in this area. There were 122 days of rain.

—:—

DECEMBER'S weather showed the monthly average temperature was 33 degrees, warmer than the normal 29.5 degrees, Copeland said. There was a low of 1 degree on Dec. 30 and a high of 66 degrees on Dec. 21.

He said the high reading was only one less than the all-time hot mark for December—67 degrees Dec. 6, 1956.

Rainfall amounted to 2.88 inches, compated with the normal 2.54 inches, and the snowfall of 6.75 inches was well above the normal 5.7 inches for the month.

There were 20 cloudy days, five partly cloudy days and six clear days. Sunshine amounted to 27 per cent, just under the normal 30 per cent.

Sea anemones are delicate "flower animals" but they are extremely dangerous when approached too closely. Their hollow tentacles each have a poisonous barb with which they pierce and paralyze their victims.

Congratulations are in order for James (Sonny) Migliore and his committee for another fine Midland Holiday Tournament.

The snowy weather and Midland's mediocre record held the crowds under capacity, but those who weren't on hand for the second night's doubleheader missed two fine games. The entire affair was well run and it's a treat for a team to visit Midland to play in the event.

Migliore mentions that he is interested in East Liverpool to participate in the tourney next year. The Potters, of course, would be a big draw in Midland, with many fans crossing the state line to see their team in action. Migliore notes that East Liverpool is due to play at Midland next season in any case.

AFTER BEING used to Ohio officiating, the Uniontown-New Castle game, with 61 personal fouls called by the officials, came as somewhat of a surprise. The officials, Bill Vinovich senior and junior, have worked several games in Ohio without calling nearly so many fouls. Southern Local coach Al Girome, in attendance at the game, said he thought that the numerous fouls were due to the fast-paced style of play employed by the Hurricanes and Raiders, not to any rules interpretation difference between Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Both Girome and Beaver Local's Lloyd Stockdale, who attended the second night, were amazed at how much the coaches on the bench were allowed to get away with. New Castle's firey Connie Palumbo was warned at one point by referee Ed Plank to sit down or get a technical.

I talked to New Castle captain George Eggleston and asked him if he thought the Red Hurricanes had a chance to win the state title. Eggleston said he thought they had a chance, but Sharon would be a big hurdle. The Tigers are led by 6-7 Chuck Carthorn, and according to one Section 3 writer, Carthorn is responsible for a change in the special education program at Sharon. The program had only been a two-year one, but the Sharon school board changed it to a three-year one, coincidentally keeping Carthorn eligible for this season. "If he had been 5-7 instead of 6-7 Sharon would still have a two-year special ed. program", claimed the writer.

A FAMILIAR figure at the tourney was Dave Brakewell, Uniontown's number one fan. As redhot a basketball nut as you'd want to meet, Dave claims he took in 137 roundball games in person during the 1966-67 season.

The recent Quaker City Tourney in Philadelphia drew poorly, despite some good attractions. One reason for this may have been the shift of the tournament from Penn's Palestra to the brand-new Spectrum, in hard-to-get-to, high-crime area South Philadelphia. The Palestra, besides a favorable location, has established itself as one of the capitals of college basketball in the country. In addition to Penn., St. Joseph's, Villanova, Temple and LaSalle play most of their home games there, usually in doubleheaders.

Tennessee Rally Falls Just Short

By The Associated Press

Southern California's Rose Bowl ordeal didn't disappoint John McKay but Tennessee's Orange Bowl comeback fell short of Doug Dickey's expectations — by two feet.

O. J. Simpson broke loose for 128 rushing yards and two touchdowns as McKay's struggling national champions defeated stubborn Indiana 14-3 Monday in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

In Monday night's Orange Bowl Classic at Miami, second-ranked Tennessee, coached by Dickey, almost erased a 19-point halftime deficit before bowing to No. 3 Oklahoma 26-24 when Karl Kremser's 46-yard field goal attempt sailed two feet wide with 14 seconds to play.

In the other annual New Year's Day football attractions, Texas A&M forged a 20-16 Cotton Bowl upset over Alabama at Dallas and Louisiana State rallied for a 20-13 Sugar Bowl triumph over previously unbeaten Wyoming at New Orleans.

Last Saturday, Penn State and Florida State battled to a 17-17 standoff in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.; Texas-El Paso stunned Mississippi 14-7 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso; the East topped the West 16-14 in the Shrine All-Star classic at San Francisco and the Blue beat the Gray 22-16 at Montgomery, Ala.

"I'm well satisfied, but I know a lot of people won't be by that 14-3 score," Coach McKay said after the heavily favored Trojans, slowed by injuries, outlasted Indiana to spoil the Hoosiers' first trip to Pasadena.

Simpson, Southern Cal's All-American halfback, made the difference, scoring on a two-yard plunge in the second quarter and an eight-yard run in the finale. He carried for 48 of the Trojans' 84 yards in the first scoring drive and 28 of their 45 yards in the second.

Dave Kornowa's second-quarter field goal averted a shutout for the Big Ten co-champions.

"We knew Simpson was going to get yards," said Indiana Coach John Pont, "and I have no complaint against our defense. We had people climbing all over him."

Tennessee, trailing 19-0 at intermission, closed the gap to 19-17 on Jimmy Glover's 36-yard touchdown jaunt with a pass interception, Charley Fulton's five-yard scoring run and a 25-yard field goal by Kremser. But Bob Stephenson then picked off a Dewey Warren pass and raced 31 yards for the Sooners' decisive touchdown.

Warren's one-yard dive capped a 77-yard Tennessee scoring drive in the closing minutes and the Vols got another life when Oklahoma gambled — and lost — on a fourth-and-inches bid in its own territy. Warren marched them to the Oklahoma 21 before they were thrown back, and Kremser then missed the last-gasp field goal attempt.

"Football is a game of emotion, with ups and downs," said the dejected Dickey. "It was a good kick. A couple of feet to the left and that would have been the difference.

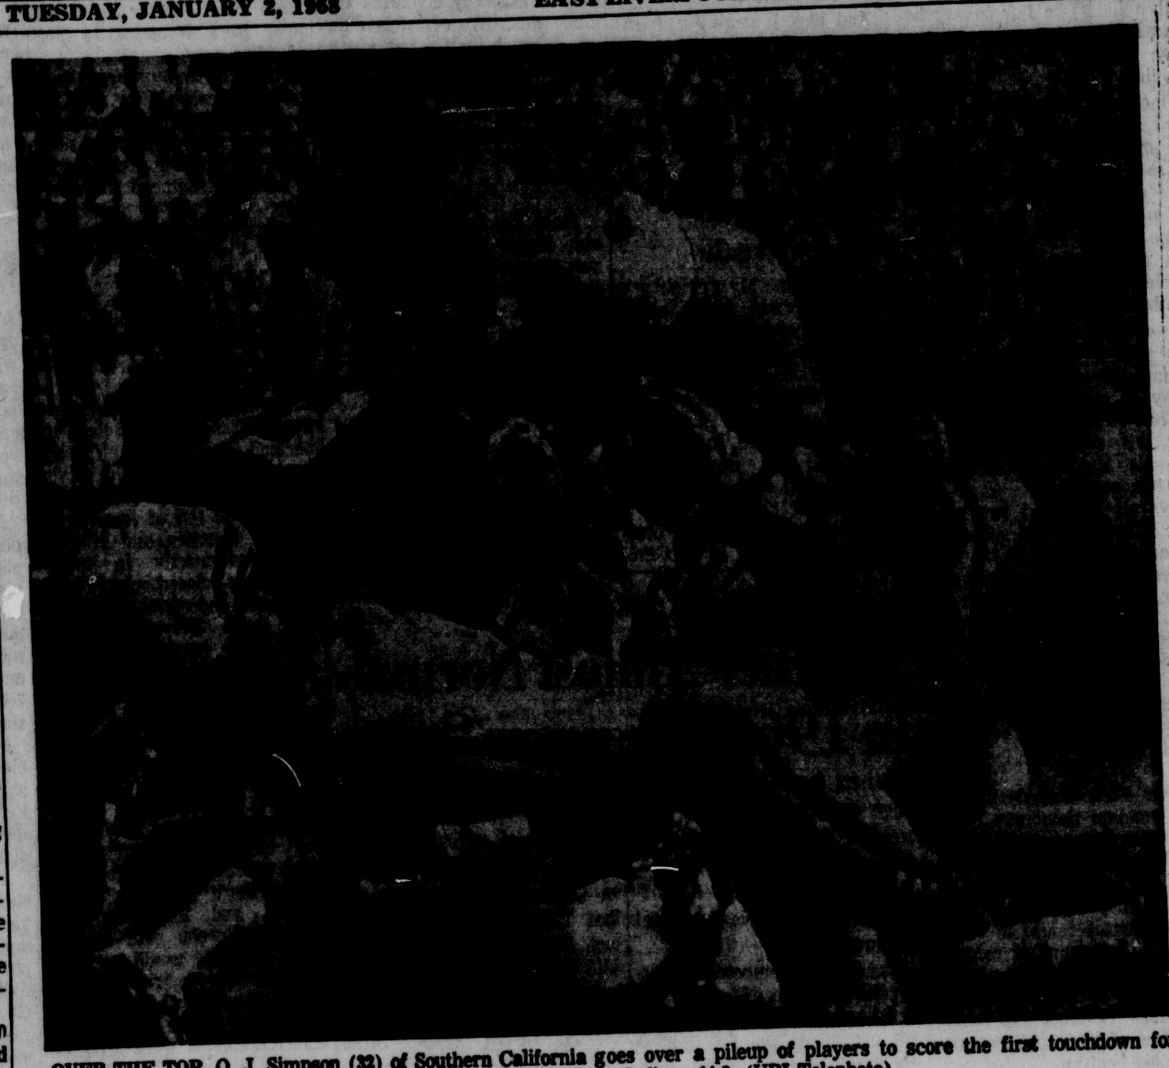

"If it hadn't been for Kremser (who booted 10 field goals during the regular season), we wouldn't be here tonight."

Pupil beat teacher at Dallas as Gene Stallings' Aggies upended Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide in their first bowl appearance in 26 years. Stalling played for Bryant at Texas A&M and was an Alabama coaching aide before returning to the Aggies.

Ed Hargett fired two touchdown passes and Wendell Housley rambled 20 yards for the winning score in the third quarter. Kenny Stabler scored twice and Steve Davis kicked a 36-yard field goal for Alabama.

ISU spotted Wyoming a 13-0 halftime lead, then bounced back behind quarterback Nelson Stokely, who threw two touchdown passes to Tommy Morel, and reserve halfback Glenn Smith, who carried for 74 yards and a touchdown.

The Cowboys, who had won all 10 of their regular season starts, mounted a desperation drive in the closing seconds that carried to the LSU four-yard line before time ran out.

O. J. Simpson Rose Bowl's MVP

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Southern California's O. J. Simpson achieved his dream of playing in the Rose Bowl and turned it into a nightmare for the Hoosiers of Indiana.

The All-America halfback scored both touchdowns as the Trojans captured the 54th annual classic 14-3 and cemented their hold on the national collegiate football championship.

Simpson gained 128 yards net in 25 carries as the speedy workhorse of the Trojan attack.

"Southern California, with Simpson, is the national champion," declared Coach John Pont of Indiana. "You could give Simpson to some of the other teams we played and then they'd be the best."

O. J. turns his athletic talents to the running track on Friday night in an indoor meet in his San Francisco hometown but declared he plans to return to football and won't try for the U.S. Olympic team.

"He'll get better," was the pronouncement from USC Coach John McKay, who termed himself well pleased with his club's performance against the Big Ten representatives.

Southern California scored on their first series of plays, driving 84 yards in 13 plays as Simpson gained 38 in six carries, including the final two.

A fumble cost USC another first-half touchdown as Dan Scott lost the ball in the end zone. In the third period, Simpson gained 28 yards in four carries on a 45-yard touchdown advance. He burst the final eight as Ron Yaryi and Denns Borne opened the hole for him.

Indiana's only points came on a 27 yard second-quarter field goal by Dave Kornowa.

McKay revealed the strategy for keeping Indiana from keying too much on Simpson, the 200-pound junior who runs the 100-yard dash in 9.4 seconds.

"We started passing on first down to get the linebackers out of there and gave the ball to Scott more than usual," the coach said. Scott contributed 85 yards in 18 carries as Simpson would swing wide as a decoy.

The Trojan coach also termed the defensive effort one of the best for this season as the winners contained quarterback Harry Gonso and halfback John Eisenbarger much of the afternoon.

Pont added, "We feel bad that we missed a couple of scoring opportunities and spent most of the rest of the game in bad field position. You just don't drive 75 or 80 yards for a touchdown against a team like Southern Cal."

5 Games In Area Tonight, WPIAL Play Underway

Basketball resumes in the area tonight with five games, three of them in Pennsylvania, where WPIAL action gets underway.

Oklahoma City Gains In Poll

UCLA, Houston Still 1-2

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The old year tournaments and the new year Associated Press poll brought a revamping of college basketball's Top Ten and its unbeaten today except at the top where, year out, year in, UCLA and Houston remain 1-2.

The overpowering Bruins, 8-0, collected 36 first place votes and 369 points and the Cougars, 13-0, got the other No. 1 vote and 320 points as they strengthened their clique at the top with tournament victories.

The voting is done by sports writers and sportscasters throughout the country on a basis of 10 points for first place, nine for second, etc.

UCLA won its own Los Angeles Classic for the sixth straight time Saturday after routs over Minnesota, St. Louis and Wyoming for 42 consecutive triumphs. The Bruins topped Wyoming 104-75 in the title game. Houston, less impressive, bounced Bradley, Marquitte and then edged North Texas State 45-43 for the Rainbow Classic title in Honolulu.

Few changes are expected until the two powerhouses collided in Houston's Astrodome Jan. 20.

But behind them, the teams are bouncing about like a basketball as three new teams entered the Top Ten, all unbeaten, and three of last week's ranking clubs dropped from the undefeated list.

The newcomers are Oklahoma City, 8-0, ranked eighth after winning its own All-College Tournament by beating Brigham Young 91-88 Saturday; St. Bonaventure, 9-0, ranked ninth after whipping Baldwin-Wallace 81-69, and New Mexico, 10-0, which won its own Lobo Invitational Thursday for the 10th spot.

Indiana had the roughest time as it entered the All-Sports Tournament in Dallas unbeaten with a No. 3 ranking only to lose to Western Kentucky and SMU and plummet from among the chosen.

Davidson, ranked eighth before losing to Vanderbilt 80-67 in the Sugar Bowl final Saturday, and Boston College, No. 10 before losing twice in the Holiday Festival in New York, also dropped from the Top Ten.

North Carolina, 7-1, won the Far West Tournament with a 68-61 victory over Oregon Saturday and replaced Indiana in the third spot, a jump from fifth.

Vanderbilt's victory and 9-1 record pushed it from ninth to fourth while Kentucky, 7-1, moved up a notch to fifth with an 81-73 victory over Notre Dame in non-tournament play.

Tennessee, 6-1, lost its first game in the Los Angeles Classic and fell from fourth to sixth despite later victories over Southern California and then Utah State 85-66 Saturday in the tourney.

Utah, 10-1, was the third ranked team to lose for the first time, falling to North Carolina in the Far West Classic, but topped Washington State 85-78 Saturday in the tournament and retained its No. 7 ranking.

Several other teams received strong recognition in the voting after tournament victories. Columbia upset first Louisville and then St. John's 60-55 for the Holiday Festival crown; Nebraska took the Big Eight Tournament with a 66-62 decision over Kansas and Temple beat St. Francis, Pa., 83-77 for the Quaker City title.

Only a handful of games were played Monday night, with New Mexico pushing its record to 11-0 with an 87-76 victory over Denver.

Penn beat Boston University 75-56 and St. Joseph's, Pa., took Brigham Young 88-74 in a doubleheader at Philadelphia. Mississippi State edged Florida 56-55 and Georgia topped Mississippi 70-64.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and total points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis:

1. UCLA (36)	369
2. Houston (1)	320
3. North Carolina	266
4. Vanderbilt	219
5. Kentucky	199
6. Tennessee	125
7. Utah	111
8. Okla. City	98
9. St. Bonaventure	49
10. New Mexico	30

Congratulations are in order for James (Sonny) Migliore and his committee for another fine Midland Holiday Tournament.

The snowy weather and Midland's mediocre record held the crowds under capacity, but those who weren't on hand for the second night's doubleheader missed two fine games. The entire affair was well run and it's a treat for a team to visit Midland to play in the event.

Migliore mentions that he is interested in East Liverpool to participate in the tourney next year. The Potters, of course, would be a big draw in Midland, with many fans crossing the state line to see their team in action. Migliore notes that East Liverpool is due to play at Midland next season in any case.

AFTER BEING used to Ohio officiating, the Uniontown-New Castle game, with 61 personal fouls called by the officials, came as somewhat of a surprise. Ambridge Advances In Ratings

Defending state champion Ambridge made the biggest gain among the Top 10 teams in the WPIAL according to the Turk Pierce Rating System last week.

The Bridgers won their own Hoopster Booster Tournament by beating North Hills and Har-Brack and gained 5.0 points, climbing from a tie for 10th to a tie for seventh. New Castle, a Section 3 foe of Ambridge, gained 2.2 points and climbed from ninth to the seventh spot tie with the Bridgers after beating Uniontown and Duquesne to win the Midland Holiday Tournament. But another Section 3 team, Sharon, retains the top spot in the rankings, despite losing 2.8 points.

Montour is the only new team in the Top 10, replacing Braddock. Braddock is still the top ranked Class B team in the WPIAL, however.

Bulls Top Bullets In NBA

By The Associated Press

The Chicago Bulls built up a whopping, 20-point lead in the third quarter, but had to stage a last minute revival to stand off Baltimore 109-103 in a National Basketball Association game Monday night.

In the only other NBA game, the St. Louis Hawks overwhelmed the Seattle Supersonics 115-94 on the West Coast.

Dallas beat New Jersey 122-104 in the only American Basketball Association game scheduled.

The Bulls rushed out to a 75-55 edge late in the third period before Baltimore, led by Kevin Loughery and LeRoy Ellis, began a comeback.

The Bullets cut it to 105-103 with seven seconds to go, but Flynn Robinson and Keith Erickson each hit two free throws to pull it out for Chicago.

Robinson finished with 34 points and Erickson had 24. Ellis topped the losers with 32.

St. Louis whipped Seattle for the fourth time in a row this season, pulling away in the second half. The Sonics built an early 10-point lead but the Hawks were ahead 48-47 at halftime.

Coach Al Bianchi of Seattle was ejected with 1:34 to go after drawing two technical fouls for disputing a goal-tending call too strenuously. Lenny Wilkens converted the foul shots and St. Louis opened its biggest lead at the point, 88-72.

Wilkens and Bill Bridges collected 26 points apiece to pace the Hawks while Walt Hazard was high for the Sonics with 17.

In the ABA, Dallas jumped off to a 35-22 lead and never was extended in outclassing New Jersey. Five Chaparral players hit double figures with Maurice McHartley scoring 21 points and Player-Coach Cliff Hagan contributing 20. Bruce Spraggins led the Americans with 22.

Renews Quest For Peace

World Tackles Problems With Celebrations Over

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer

Brushing aside the bright confetti and streamers of New Year's celebrations, the world again tackles its besetting problems and renews its quest for the elusive grail of peace.

On the advent of 1968, statesmen, church leaders and ordinary men around the world spoke of the urgent need for peace. But few, if any, seemed sure it would come in the 12 months ahead.

Pope Paul VI in Vatican City led Roman Catholics in prayers for peace. At the same time he warned that "new terrible obstacles," especially in Vietnam, arise to complicate that question.

"The world," he said, "feels a great temptation to relegate peace among other utopias as a great idea, worthy of being included among the finest energies motivating history but fated always to remain fallacious."

At the LBJ ranch in Texas President Johnson spoke of his hope "that we can make advances toward peace" but said he could not predict peace for the new year. In an exchange of New Year greetings, the President and Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato pledged to try for peace in 1968.

From Hanoi came a radio broadcast for Foreign Minister Nguyen Duy Trinh that experts said might possibly represent an easing of North Vietnamese terms for peace talks. The U.S. State Department said the statement was under study.

In the South, a Viet Cong guerrilla attack killed 26 American infantrymen and wounded 111 about 50 miles northeast of Saigon. A U.S. spokesman said the attack before the end of the cease-fire made that lull the "bloodiest of all" such truce attempts during the war.

President Johnson also announced at his New Year's Day news conference five new actions in the battle to reduce a mounting gap in the U.S. balance of payments.

Among them, he appealed to Americans to see the Americas first—and second—and save $590 million in tourism expenditures by limiting their travel to the Western Hemisphere for two years.

Most Americans, however, were less concerned Monday with the future of the U.S. balance of payments than the fate of their favorite football team.

It was a day of record cold, snow and freezing rain around the country, a good day for staying indoors, catching college gridiron heroes on television and eating snacks instead of sit-down dinners.

From the leisure of a living room chair the Cotton Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Rose Bowl and Orange Bowl could be enjoyed from early afternoon into the evening.

The games were preceded by the traditional pageants and parades including the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena, Calif., where more than 270 persons jammed each mile of the 5.5-mile parade route.

As the holiday weekend came to a close the National Safety Council credited both the bad weather and good driving for a death toll below advance estimates.

It was below zero in Clarksburg, Mass. The wind was blowing and snow falling but six Berkshire County residents carried out a plan to camp out overnight to greet the new year.

Their celebration included hot dogs and champagne. The six, who had camped out together last summer, set up their tents, portable gas stoves and portable record players in Clarksburg State Park.

Licenses Slated To Administer Sobriety Tests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The first licenses for persons qualified to administer sobriety tests under Ohio's new law to crack down on drunken drivers are expected to be issued today by the State Department of Health.

Gov. James A. Rhodes signed a proclamation at 12:01 a.m. Monday providing for emergency regulations to put the new law into effect. It is one of several new state laws for drivers.

The emergency regulations will be in effect for 60 days until permanent rules are adopted.

Under the new law, drivers accused of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated must submit to a sobriety test or face automatic suspension of their driver's licenses for six months.

$6,000 Damage Cited In Hamlton Blaze

CINCINNATI (AP) — More than a score of volunteer firemen battled for about two hours Monday a fire that caused an estimated $6,000 damage to the Anderson Township ranger station.

Officials said the fire at the police station in the eastern part of Hamilton County was touched off by a workman using a torch to thaw out an oil line. The oil ignited.

Packers Drained By Win

By The Associated Press

The Oakland Raiders went to work on their Super Bowl preparations today but the emotionally-drained Green Bay Packers took another day off to regain their composure after their dramatic triumph over Dallas.

"I really couldn't celebrate New Year's," Packer tackle Ron Kostelnik said. "I was completely drained."

The Packers gained the National Football League championship for the third straight year Saturday with a breathless 21-17 victory over Dallas in -13 degree weather at Green Bay, Bart Starr struggling one yard for the winning touchdown with just 13 seconds remaining.

Oakland, playing at home, overwhelmed Houston 40-7 for the Raiders' first American Football League title. They'll play the Packers in the Super Bowl in Miami, Fla., Jan. 14.

"The Packers are rated as the best," said Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica, who passed for two touchdowns and ran for another in the rout of Houston.

"And we hope, if we can beat them, that people will consider us the best.

"I feel we certainly can score on Green Bay. There's no doubt about that. The whole thing is a matter of execution and it goes both ways."

"If we get the execution, we can beat them," said running back Hewritt Dixon, who ripped Houston's defenses for 144 yards, including a 69-yard touchdown run.

"We've got a good chance against the Packers," said center Jim Otto. "We know how to play, we're younger than the Packers and we can hit with the best of them."

The Packers were much more subdued in their comments about their rivals.

"They're a good football team," said Zeke Bratkowski, the veteran backup man to Starr. "They've won 11 games in a row."

Their game against Houston was a laughter, the Raiders running up a 30-0 edge and coasting in. Lamonica hit on touchdown passes of 18 and 12 yards, the first after a fake field goal attempt, George Blanda kicked field goals of 37, 40, 42 and 36 yards, while Dixon and Pete Banaszak—116 yards—provided the ground game.

Browns Preparing For Playoff Bowl Game

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Cleveland Browns begin drills here today in preparation for the National Football League Playoff Bowl game against the Los Angeles Rams Sunday.

Today's agenda included a light loosening up session.

Art Modell, the Browns' president, arrived in the Miami area Monday. He and Coach Blanton Collier will remain here after the playoff bowl game to watch the Green Bay Packers play the Oakland Raiders in the Super Bowl here Jan. 14.

Modell and Collier will use next week for huddles to discuss possible changes at some of the Browns' positions.

The Rams beat the Browns in the exhibition season. They lost to Green Bay in the NFL's Western Conference playoff and ended the season with an 11-2-2 record.

The Browns had a 9-6 mark, including the rout by the Dallas Cowboys in the Eastern Conference playoff.

Wheeling Opening Draws Well In Cold

WHEELING — A total of 2,781 snow bird fans helped usher in the new year and the new Wheeling Downs yesterday and came away singing the praises of 18-year-old apprentice jockey Joseph Calvello.

The sharp - featured youngster, just a year out of a New Jersey high school and four months away from his first win, helped inaugurate the 41 - day meeting at the newly rebuilt Downs with four winners.

For the most part yesterday prices were about on a par with the thermometer — low — until Macs Texan and French Stone combined for a $259.80 payoff in the perfecta in the last race of the day.

Calvello was as hot as the weather was cold as he won the fourth race with Amy O, $4.20, the fifth with Little Octopus, $8.40, the sixth with Forever Pilot, $4.20, the seventh with Gallipolis, $13.80. Two other mounts finished fourth and second, in all a fine days work.

The weatherman's Sunday punch of drifting snow and subzero weather had calmed down Monday, but it still took considerable determination to make it to the track yesterday. Temperatures hovered between six and eight degrees above zero for the opening.

However, the Downs' completely rebuilt grandstand, heated throughout, dulled the weatherman's sting for the fans and the winterizing program for the track had it rated in good condition and fast.

Both president James F. Edwards and general manager Charles T. Tweelie expressed pleasure at the turnout yesterday.

Packers Drained By Win

By The Associated Press

The Oakland Raiders went to work on their Super Bowl preparations today but the emotionally-drained Green Bay Packers took another day off to regain their composure after their dramatic triumph over Dallas.

"I really couldn't celebrate New Year's," Packer tackle Ron Kostelnik said. "I was completely drained."

The Packers gained the National Football League championship for the third straight year Saturday with a breathless 21-17 victory over Dallas in -13 degree weather at Green Bay, Bart Starr struggling one yard for the winning touchdown with just 13 seconds remaining.

Oakland, playing at home, overwhelmed Houston 40-7 for the Raiders' first American Football League title. They'll play the Packers in the Super Bowl in Miami, Fla., Jan. 14.

"The Packers are rated as the best," said Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica, who passed for two touchdowns and ran for another in the rout of Houston.

"And we hope, if we can beat them, that people will consider us the best.

"I feel we certainly can score on Green Bay. There's no doubt about that. The whole thing is a matter of execution and it goes both ways."

"If we get the execution, we can beat them," said running back Hewritt Dixon, who ripped Houston's defenses for 144 yards, including a 69-yard touchdown run.

"We've got a good chance against the Packers," said center Jim Otto. "We know how to play, we're younger than the Packers and we can hit with the best of them."

The Packers were much more subdued in their comments about their rivals.

"They're a good football team," said Zeke Bratkowski, the veteran backup man to Starr. "They've won 11 games in a row."

Their game against Houston was a laughter, the Raiders running up a 30-0 edge and coasting in. Lamonica hit on touchdown passes of 18 and 12 yards, the first after a fake field goal attempt, George Blanda kicked field goals of 37, 40, 42 and 36 yards, while Dixon and Pete Banaszak—116 yards—provided the ground game.

Big Money Stimulates Auto Racing

By BLOYS BRITT
Associated Press Writer

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—If anyone ever asks you the question "what makes Johnny run," or "why auto racing," the stock answer could be a simple word —"money."

Yearend reports have been released by the nation's two major sanctioning bodies for professional drivers, the United States Auto Club and the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing.

They show these two organizations distributed $5,394,620 for 1,171 races during 1967, an increase of $500,679 in purse money over the previous year. Of the total, USAC sponsored 34 events with purses totaling $2,273,516. NASCAR sanctioned 1,027 events for Grand National, modified, sportsmen and drag cars with purses totaling $3,121,104.20.

Well over half of USAC's total —1,536,965 — was paid in its exotic championship (Indianapolis cars) division, where 21 events were run. NASCAR paid $1,225, 549 to its elite Grand National drivers, or an average of $25,011.22 for 9 races.

NASCAR prize money showed an increase of $198,013 over 1966, while USAC paid out 302,666 more. USAC drivers distributed $108,330 in championship point fund money at the end of the season, NASCAR $179,667.

USAC crowned A. J. Foyt as the champion in its big car division, Don White as winner of the stock car division, Mel Kenon in midgets and Greg Weld in sprints.

IAN NASCAR, Richard Petty won the Grand National stock title, Pete Hamilton the sportsman championship, Carl Berghan the modified title, and Scott Cain the West Coast late model crown.

Wheeling Opening Draws Well In Cold

WHEELING — A total of 2,781 snow bird fans helped usher in the new year and the new Wheeling Downs yesterday and came away singing the praises of 18-year-old apprentice jockey Joseph Calvello.

The sharp - featured youngster, just a year out of a New Jersey high school and four months away from his first win, helped inaugurate the 41 - day meeting at the newly rebuilt Downs with four winners.

For the most part yesterday prices were about on a par with the thermometer — low — until Macs Texan and French Stone combined for a $259.80 payoff in the perfecta in the last race of the day.

Calvello was as hot as the weather was cold as he won the fourth race with Amy O, $4.20, the fifth with Little Octopus, $8.40, the sixth with Forever Pilot, $4.20, the seventh with Gallipolis, $13.80. Two other mounts finished fourth and second, in all a fine days work.

The weatherman's Sunday punch of drifting snow and subzero weather had calmed down Monday, but it still took considerable determination to make it to the track yesterday. Temperatures hovered between six and eight degrees above zero for the opening.

However, the Downs' completely rebuilt grandstand, heated throughout, dulled the weatherman's sting for the fans and the winterizing program for the track had it rated in good condition and fast.

Both president James F. Edwards and general manager Charles T. Tweelie expressed pleasure at the turnout yesterday.

Renews Quest For Peace

World Tackles Problems With Celebrations Over

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer

Brushing aside the bright confetti and streamers of New Year's celebrations, the world again tackles its besetting problems and renews its quest for the elusive grail of peace.

On the advent of 1968, statesmen, church leaders and ordinary men around the world spoke of the urgent need for peace. But few, if any, seemed sure it would come in the 12 months ahead.

Pope Paul VI in Vatican City led Roman Catholics in prayers for peace. At the same time he warned that "new terrible obstacles," especially in Vietnam, arise to complicate that question.

"The world," he said, "feels a great temptation to relegate peace among other utopias as a great idea, worthy of being included among the finest energies motivating history but fated always to remain fallacious."

At the LBJ ranch in Texas President Johnson spoke of his hope "that we can make advances toward peace" but said he could not predict peace for the new year. In an exchange of New Year greetings, the President and Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato pledged to try for peace in 1968.

From Hanoi came a radio broadcast for Foreign Minister Nguyen Duy Trinh that experts said might possibly represent an easing of North Vietnamese terms for peace talks. The U.S. State Department said the statement was under study.

In the South, a Viet Cong guerrilla attack killed 26 American infantrymen and wounded 111 about 50 miles northeast of Saigon. A U.S. spokesman said the attack before the end of the cease-fire made that lull the "bloodiest of all" such truce attempts during the war.

President Johnson also announced at his New Year's Day news conference five new actions in the battle to reduce a mounting gap in the U.S. balance of payments.

Among them, he appealed to Americans to see the Americas first—and second—and save $590 million in tourism expenditures by limiting their travel to the Western Hemisphere for two years.

Most Americans, however, were less concerned Monday with the future of the U.S. balance of payments than the fate of their favorite football team.

It was a day of record cold, snow and freezing rain around the country, a good day for staying indoors, catching college gridiron heroes on television and eating snacks instead of sit-down dinners.

From the leisure of a living room chair the Cotton Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Rose Bowl and Orange Bowl could be enjoyed from early afternoon into the evening.

The games were preceded by the traditional pageants and parades including the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena, Calif., where more than 270 persons jammed each mile of the 5.5-mile parade route.

As the holiday weekend came to a close the National Safety Council credited both the bad weather and good driving for a death toll below advance estimates.

It was below zero in Clarksburg, Mass. The wind was blowing and snow falling but six Berkshire County residents carried out a plan to camp out overnight to greet the new year.

Their celebration included hot dogs and champagne. The six, who had camped out together last summer, set up their tents, portable gas stoves and portable record players in Clarksburg State Park.

Licenses Slated To Administer Sobriety Tests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The first licenses for persons qualified to administer sobriety tests under Ohio's new law to crack down on drunken drivers are expected to be issued today by the State Department of Health.

Gov. James A. Rhodes signed a proclamation at 12:01 a.m. Monday providing for emergency regulations to put the new law into effect. It is one of several new state laws for drivers.

The emergency regulations will be in effect for 60 days until permanent rules are adopted.

Under the new law, drivers accused of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated must submit to a sobriety test or face automatic suspension of their driver's licenses for six months.

$6,000 Damage Cited In Hamlton Blaze

CINCINNATI (AP) — More than a score of volunteer firemen battled for about two hours Monday a fire that caused an estimated $6,000 damage to the Anderson Township ranger station.

Officials said the fire at the police station in the eastern part of Hamilton County was touched off by a workman using a torch to thaw out an oil line. The oil ignited.

Barbados, 166-square - mile island, became the smallest independent nation in the western hemisphere on Nov. 30, 1966.

Junior Editors Quiz on RAINDROPS

QUESTION: How big are raindrops, and how are they shaped?

ANSWER: Raindrops come from water droplets formed in clouds. At first, such droplets are extremely small, perhaps 1/125 inches in diameter. But they collide, join and become bigger, and fall to the earth as raindrops. It was once thought that as raindrops fell, they were pear-shaped (1). This probably was because we are accustomed to seeing water drops in this shape. When a baby cries, the tears run down his face in this form, and raindrops will assume this shape when they roll down leaves or hang from the edges. But this is because the upper part is clinging to the baby's face or the leaf as the heavier lower part pulls down. When in the air, experts concluded that the raindrop was perfectly round (2). Now a leading scientist has told us that a falling raindrop is actually flattened on the bottom, round on the top, with sides wider than they are high (3). Various aerodynamic and hydrostatic forces, as well as surface tension, are said to account for this.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, Jan. 2, the second day of 1968. There are 364 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1942, Japanese invaders captured the Philippine city of Manila 26 days after the start of the Pacific war.

On this date:

In 1766, there were Stamp Act riots in Savannah, Ga.

In 1788, Georgia became the fourth state to ratify the U.S. Constitution.

In 1900, the Open Door policy in China was announced by U.S. Secretary of State John Hay.

In 1921, religious services were broadcast over the radio for the first time. Station KDKA in Pittsburgh transmitted the revice of the city's Dalvary Episcopal Church.

In 1960, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts announced his candidacy for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Ten years ago: The Soviet Union announced big price increases on cars and luxury items to offset a loss in revenue resulting from changes in the tax laws.

Five years ago: The number of Americans killed in action in Vietnam rose to 30 as five American helicopters were shot down.

One year ago: The U.S. air offensive against North Vietnam exploded into the biggest aerial battle of the war. Seven Communist Migs were downed.

Katarinaberget, the world's largest bomb shelter, lies beneath Stockholm, Sweden. This huge excavation in solid rock could hold 17,000 people in case of nuclear attack.
